In his story "Two Bags of Wild Ducks," in the September number of Rod and Gun, which is now on the news-stands, Bonnycastle Dale the naturalist writer and contributor to many Canadian as well as American journals, compares shooting with the gun to shooting with a camera. "Duck Dayson Pitt Meadows" describes a duck shooting expedition in another Province, that of British Columbia. "A Bit of Selkirk Bush" is a humorous sketch of an expedition through the Selkirk while "With Dad in the Forests of Quebec" tells something about the good hunting and shooting that is to be had in that Province. The magazine for September is replete with stories of interest to the lover of the out-of-doors and special departments devoted to Guns and Ammunition, Conservation, Fishing, Notes, The Kennel, etc., are also of particular interest. This representative Canadian sportsman's magazine is published at Woodstock by W. J. Taylor, Limited.

Expunctuating With the Thunder.

In "The Rediscovered Country" S. H.
White gives this glimpse of a native custom in an East African thunderstorm:

A Wakoma porter stood out stark naked in the rain and shouted back an answer in a loud tone of voice to every clap of thunder.

He was a fine sight, as he was revealed by the flashes—the upright pose, the rain streaming from his glistening body, the flicker of his metal ornaments. M'ganga, later appealed to, said that he was the official thunder lord for his people. He was saying:
"Go away! Go this way! Go that way! You like to sit on high hills!
There are no high hills here! Go to Jkorongo, there are high hills!" He had also put "medicine" in a tree in camp. I asked M'ganga if he himself believed in this. He grinned quietly and replied, "Well, the rain has gone."

INVADERS DRIVEN BACK

Russo-Roumanian Forces Retake Captured Fortresses.

Recapture of Dobrich Occurs at End of Twenty-four-hour Battle—Roumanians Have Also Seized Towns in Transylvania—Another Army Has Invaded Serbia as Far as Negotin.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Russo-Roumanian forces have retaken from the Bulgar-Teuton invaders the city and fortress of Dobrich (Bazardjik), 50 miles south-east of Bucharest, after a 24 hours' battle, beginning immediately after its fall Saturday. Dobrichi, a small town near Dobrich, also was retaken. This first important success scored by the Roumanians and their Muscovite ally since Roumania's entrance into the war, was announced by the Bucharest War Office Sunday night as follows:
"Russian and Roumanian troops drove the Bulgarians from Bazardjik (Dobrich) and Dobasi."

It is certain that the Germans and Bulgars have had to give up the Black Sea ports of Kavarna and Kali Akra, which are north of Bazardjik.
These points are on the Teutonic right flank. News that they have been forced out of Afliatar, little more than ten miles south of the Roumanian fortress of Silistria, is expected at any time.

This driving back of the Teutonic right wing and centre is almost certain to be followed by a withdrawal of the left wing, which rests a little north of captured Tutrak. Bazard-jik, the recaptured city, is south of a line drawn straight east from Tutrakan, and if the Teutons in Tutrakan do not withdraw they will be caught with the Russians and Roumanians in front of them and the Danube and Roumania behind.

The result will be that the Russo-Roumanian plan of an invasion of Bulgaria from the Dobrudja will be carried out, and with greater chance of success than if the Teutons never had invaded Roumania. Together with the reported Roumanian advance into Serbia, this would cut off the Bulgarian and Teuton forces in the Balkans and pin them between General Sarrail's army at Salonica and the Russo-Roumanian armies to the north.

In the northern Transylvanian Alps the Russo-Roumanian forces captured six towns, including Toplitza, 14 miles north of Orsova, the others being San Milai, Deline, Ciurghiurgen and Semigian. They repulsed a counter-attack south of Mehadia, 15 miles north of Orsova.

The Roumanian seaport of Constanza was again bombarded by German and Bulgarian aeroplanes, according to the Roumanian War Office statement.

A Russo-Roumanian army has begun an invasion of Serbia. Sweeping southwards from Orsova, taking the identical course the Teutons took in their whirlwind campaign through the little kingdom, the new invaders have penetrated as far as Negotin, seven miles inside of the Serbian border, occupying the town, according to an Athens despatch to The Daily News.

Thus the first blow in the long-heralded Allied campaign for the isolation of the Central Empires from Bulgaria and Turkey by cutting the Berlin-Constantinople-Bagdad railway has been struck. Indeed, the Athens despatch adds that the Russo-Roumanian troops are advancing toward the Orient railway.
To reach it they have to cover 60 more miles.

Through this new Serbian invasion the Teutonic and Bulgarian armies in Macedonia are placed between two formidable thrusts, a French-British-Serbian thrust from Salonica and an attack from the Russo-Roumanian forces. An added menace lies in the possible thwarting of the Bulgar-Teuton campaign in Roumania, which would result in a simultaneous Russian drive for Constantinople and a second Russo-Roumanian invasion of Serbia from the east.

Cossacks on Bulgarian Frontier.
LONDON, Sept. 11.—A despatch to Reuters' Telegram Company from Petrograd says:
"Russian cavalry has occupied several points on the Bulgar-Roumanian frontier."
It is reported from Sofia that two Russian monitors and one cruiser have bombarded twelve Kavala forts along a front of 16 kilometres.

These are the Greek forts seized by the German and Bulgarian forces a fortnight ago.

Major Morait, the Berlin Tageblatt's military critic, estimates the Russian Dobrudja army at between 300,000 and 400,000.

Another South African Revolt.

CAPE TOWN, Sept. 11.—Details of an attempt to foment another rebellion against the British in South Africa were disclosed at the trial Friday at Bloemfontein of two Nationalists, Van der Merwe and Schonken.
The men are alleged to have approached a number of prominent Boers, to whom they told that large stores of rifles were available, and that certain Boer generals were willing to lead a revolt.

British Airman Killed.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Flight Commander Clarke was instantly killed Sunday while aeroplaning over the eastern counties. His aeroplane collided with another machine in mid-air, and he was dashed to earth.

Ships With Dukes to Pass on Atlantic

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—The Duke of Connaught expects to leave Canada a fortnight hence and, according to custom, the Duke of Devonshire, the new Governor-General, will pass him on the Atlantic.

Italian Blacklist.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—Italy will shortly publish a blacklist of suspected firms, according to an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Rome.

Contemporary Opinion of Beethoven.

When the First Trios and the First Symphony appeared the conservative critics declared that they were "the confused explosions of a talented young man's overweening conceit."

The Second Symphony was called a monster, a dragon wounded to death and unable to die, thrashing around with its tail in impotent rage! Later Von Weber declared of the sublime Seventh Symphony that "the extravagances of this genius have reached their ne plus ultra, and Beethoven is quite ripe for the madhouse!"—Dole in "Famous Composers."

The Word Calico.

The word "calico" has a queer origin. Many centuries ago the first monarch of the province of Malabar, in Hindustan, gave to one of his chiefs as a reward for distinguished services his sword and all the land within the limit of which a cock crowing at a certain temple could be heard. From this circumstance the little town which grew up in the center of this territory was called Caliroda, or "the cock crowing." Afterward it was called Calicut, and from this place the first cotton goods were imported into England bearing the word calico.

YIELDING PRACTICALLY
5.35%WAR LOAN
DOMINION OF CANADA

As with the previous Loan, we predict a great success for this issue. During this period of stress our Government needs our help and counts upon our patriotism. But a chance is given investors of placing their money in securities of the highest grade, upon terms the liberality of which will, perhaps, not be fully realized until the return of normal times.

If this Loan were issued to yield 4%, instead of about 5.35%, the price would be 105.41 instead of 97.50. A 4% yield, (the basis on which Dominion Government bonds sold so recently as 1914) would mean a price of 111 for the present issue.

We will forward your application, procure your allotment and render other services free of charge to you.
