Oronhyatekha Says Order Were Disobeyed By

S. C. R. ENDS HIS STORY

Toronto, Sept. 25. When the Insurnce Commission opened yesterday, with Dr. Oronhyatekha in the witness box, Mr. Shepley took up the asset of $20,000 held by the I. O. F. under the head of provincial. He claimed that this should be held by the Union Trust, but witness could give no further information than he had already given as the matter had been turned over by him to Messrs, Laidlaw and McGillivray. Questioned on the purchase of certain C. P. R. subsidy lands in connection with the Great West Land Co., he knew that the L. C. F. had learned the comwith the Great West Land Co., he knew that the I. O. F. had loaned the com-pany money, but that he had received no personal profit out of the transaction whatever. The interested parties were Messrs. Foster, Wilson and McGillivray. One hundred shares of Great West Land Co. in his name he had reconveyed to the order, but by mistake it had gotten into the hands of the syndicate. He knew nothing of another deal concerning 2371-2 shares. About $958,000 of Umion Trust funds were but up for the syndicate.

4988,000 of Union Trust funds were put up for the syndicate.
"It seems a pity that you were not looking after the Union Trust Co., too," observed Mr. Shepley.
"If I had been," said the S. C. R., "some things which were done might not have been done."
"They were would not have approved."

when were done might with the wear approved of the handing over of corporation funds for private speculation?"

"No, I don't think I would?"

"What other transaction had you in mind," saked Mr. Shepley, "when you said that some would not have gone through if you had been in direct charge of the Union Trust?"

"I don't see any objection to saying this: The directors had given certain orders not to do certain things, and I understood Mr. Foster had done them, in disobedience of orders."

understood Mr. Foster had done them, in disobedience of orders."
"You have in mind the particular matter or matters as to which there was a breach of instructions?"
"Yes. It was buying stock which was non-dividend-bearing. I had very decided opinions in the matter, and had had orders given by the directors not to buy non-dividend-bearing stocks, and I understand that Mr. Foster did buy. I didn't like it."
"What stocks have you in mind?" What stocks have you in mind?"

"Some railway stock. I don't know what. The reason I was hestating was that Mr. Foster in a sense did perfectly right in buying them."

Various Land Doals.

The Supreme Chief Ranger's exam-ination was concluded, and Hon. E. G. Stevenson of Detroit, supreme councillor, and the man who handles the legal business of the I. O. F. in the United States was called to the stand. Matters connected with the Union Trust was stated." said Mr. Stevenson "that there was a proposition, involving Quebec timber. Three or four men were to take over 49 per cent. of the trans-action, the Union Trust to advance the money on their covenants, and we four Foster, McGillivray, Wilson and myself were to borrow the 51 per cent. also from the Union Trust. I said that I had no such funds, and I demurred at borrowing from the Trust company, on the ground that we were trustees. Then roposition dropped."

Mr. Shepley went on to ask what the witness had to do with the second transfer. He explained, in reply, that when Dr. Oronhyatekha departed for India, in October last year, the expec tation was to have lands turned over to the Settlers' Land Co. The Mon-tague lands were part of the 123,000 acres which finally found their way into the Northwest Settlers' Land Co. After the doctor's departure, there was considerable agitation against was considerable agitation against subsidiary companies. Witness had reported that the Foresters might be laying themselves open to suspicion. A syndicate was formed, consisting of Messrs. The original intention of the Northwest purchases was to assist members of the order to get a fair start there, with a chance to finally buy. "That," said the witness, "had to be abandoned when we took the back track."
"When you awoke to your land policy in the Northwest, what were your interests there?"

terests there?"
"Four hundred thousand acres, ultimately involving two million dollars."

"How did that strike you as the policy of a trust company?"
"I thought it was too many eggs in ne basket."

The witness was asked about the The witness was asked about the Northwest Land Co., of which he was aware first in 1904. He told of an intricate deal to which objection was finally taken, as he felt that money advanced by the Union Trust was not sufficiently secured. In the fall of 1905 stock taken by the Union Trust Co. was cancelled, and retired, and a mortgage made covering advances made, and those subsequently required, thus giving the trust a first claim.

For their $200,000 profit Pope and Fowker, or whoever they represented, got $150,000 cash and $50,000 Great West Land Co. stock. When the fifty cents extra was allowed the syndicate, they got $55,000 stock instead of $50,000. That left $95,000 representing the increased price. Of that 2371-2 shares were transferred to the company and 100 to Dr. Oronhyatekha. I understood it to be the bonus of the Union Trust Co. to be the bonus of the Union Trust Co for undertaking the transaction. They got their money back, interest and profit, in the ratio of 3371-2 to 1,500 for financing it."

"When the transaction took the form of a mortgage, what happened?"

"It was turned back to the syndicate. I am down on the minutes as fathering the resolution. I don't accuse anyone of falsifying anything, but if I made such a resolution, I never intended it."

"Then Messrs. Foster, McGillivray and Wilson were really the Great West Land Co.?" asked Mr. Shepley.
"I'm not certain of that. I was told in a very indirect way that Mr. Wilson had purchased nearly all the stock in the company."

in the company."
"Then you were not aware of the relationship of these three gentlemen to the Great West Co. as managers or controlling directors?"
Mr. Stevenson was not.
"I know, however, that Messrs, Foster, McCliffers, Wilson, and Chancelet. ter, McGillivray, Wilson and Chancel-lor Boyd were directors of the Great West Co., and also of the Union Trust Co."

"And the money for the Great West Co. was all advanced from the Union Trust Co.?'

"Every dellar of it."
"Then, whatever was "Then, whatever was acquired by the company was due to the use of the funds of the Union Trust Co.?"

"Yes." Mr. Foster Takes the Stand.

wherein Dr. Oronhyatekha protested that the 100 shares of stock in the

PEARS AND HOW TO COOK THEM

Housekeepers are beginning to realize that the pear is almost as useful as the peach in the making of fancy desserts, and as its keeping qualities are excellent it will probably become more and more popular for these dainty dishes. Sliced very thin and served simply with sweetened whipped cream, even an epicure should be delighted with it, or it may be served in the same way combined with bananas, peaches, or very ripe, rich-flavored apples. Only the finest flavored pears should be used for serving with cream and sugar.

There are few things more conductive to discbedience and stubbornness in childrent than the constant use of the words "no" and "dont." The mother should hesitate more than once before saying them. Mix with them two table spoonfuls of clarified butter, three-spoonfuls of clarified butter, three-spoonful clarified butter, three-spoo at four o'clock in the morning and wants amusement, that the tired mother should give up those early hours of sleep, which are the sweetest and oft-times the most beneficial to her, just because the children want her to. The younger the baby the easier it is to teach him to sleep at the proper time; children of two, threee, four years and older have most active brains, and if they wake early do not go no sleep again as easily as a baby. They want a frolic or they cry lustily for attention and amusement, says Harper's Bazar; they want a cracker or something to eat, or they want to crawl into mother's bed to cuddle, play, tease, or fret. If the mether allows this sort of thing, she establishes a bad precedent; the children soon learn to impose upon her. This creates a certain selfish lack of consideration, which increases as the child grows older.

Rheumatism is not incurable Stubborn? Yes! But Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy will, if faithfully used, drive it out of the system. It's the blood that's at faull. Poisonous crystals like sand get into the joints and muscles. Dr. Shoop's Rheumatic Remedy prevents this. It drives Rheumatism from the blood and then Rheumatism dies. We recommend and sell it.

A pauper inmate of the Worcester-shire Lunatic Asylum wrote to the Kid-derminster Board of Guardians asking to be allowed to pay something toward the cost of his maintenance out of his savings, which amount to £120. The board regarded the letter as perfectly sane, and decided to appropriate 4s. a Utilizing Offertory Buttons Buttons sewn on a silk ground formed a scrollwork recently sold at a North London auction, the ornament being the work of a country clergy-man's wife, who thus utilized the but-tons put in the offertory bags of her husband's church.

Fixed Bayonets. It is said that during the siege of Ladysmith in the Boer war the assault column of British, advancing in thick darkness, climbed up an almost pre cipitous wall. Once or twice they were ognized them and shouted to the sentry to fire on the "verdomde rooineks!" As the crest was gained the fire broke out. A few of the attackers began to reply, but they were stopped, and the voice of the commanding officer was heard to give the order, "Fix bayonets!" That there were no bayonets did not matter. The men, taking up the cry, rushed on the Boer gunners, who fied at the thought of the cold steel.

The Streets of Peru. The streets of Peru, espe gala days or when they wear the spe-cial dress of some celebration, are said to be among the most picturesque in the world. In their narrow proportions they resemble somewhat the streets of China, and the variety and contrast of the colors used in decoration may be compared with the Chinese. There is, however, a distinct Latin character to the decoration, which lends them an atmosphere entirely their own.
