

THE ACADIAN. WOLFVILLE, N.S., AUG. 9, 1889.

The Halifax Carnival. The carnival opened in Halifax on Monday last, bringing its thousands of visitors to witness the various attractions provided for their enjoyment.

The Fishery Trouble. The seizure of the Canadian schooner Black Diamond in Baring Bay by the United States revenue cutter Reek is another evidence of the aggressive character of our neighbors across the border.

Distinguished Visitors. The morning train from Halifax on Saturday last left on our siding for the day a private car belonging to Senator Farwell, of Chicago, and Dr. J. B. Johnson, of Illinois.

The Camp Meeting. The camp meeting at Bore's was successfully held on a plain on Tuesday last. The number present each day and the financial returns accumulated for funds were so large that the year's meetings were on a scale which has never been exceeded.

Early Closing. We, the merchants of Wolfville, agree to close our places of business Thursday evening of each week at six o'clock, to begin with August the first.

Deaths. At South Berwick, on the 1st inst., Blanche Skinner, wife of Alex. McKenna, aged 30 years; niece of Daniel Moore, Esq., Kentville.

Vacation Jottings. BROOKFIELD, July 25. An invitation to go to Brookfield and spend a week at the home of "Hart Harlow," whom the readers of the Acadian have long known by his delightful contributions, was of course hailed with delight.

His Last Hour. "Hark!" "The nothing but the wind blowing through the pines."

On our way we passed through Great Village, the home of our Lieutenant-Governor, Hon. A. W. McLaughlin, and I had the pleasure of seeing his residence. I was sorry he was not at home.

It was towards evening when we reached Brookfield. Mr. J. M. W. C. C. is the present of the honorably great and cordial and made me feel at home at once.

At the close of the meeting, we were all invited to a supper at the residence of Mr. J. M. W. C. C. The supper was a most excellent one, and we all enjoyed it very much.

"Book of Wonders." (L. L. DAVENPORT.)

We are drawing towards the end of the book. Our readings have not been uninteresting to me, at least—and it is with regret on my part that we are soon to close the "Book of Wonders."

Without the chilly north wind howled and roared among the trees, and the waters of the lake at the north dashed against the rocky, treacherous shore, only to be dashed and dashed back again in the form of frothy foam.
