Rev. H. T. Wright preached his fare well service as Pastor of the United Baptist Church on Sabbath evening, the church being filled with a large and representative congregation. The pastor chose for his text. Jonah 1, 1-5; his subject being "The Great Refusal". No book, said the speaker has beenmore severly criticized by the higher critics than has Jonah, and yet in none, is there more Gospel contained. It is full of help, encouragement and enlightment. Here let me add a word of caution, to those who would limit Gods power. If His hand formed the sea and dry land surely, it is within His power to make a fish large enough to swallow Jonah Many measure God by their own minds. Because they cannot think beyond a certain point, they think the great Creator cannot. The Divine Command to Jonah was "Go to Ninevah". So God speaks to man to-day. But he will not listen to God, so many voices are calling him, he will not hear" The Still Small Voice". God wanted Jonah to show to these people the right path, but Jonah refused to go. That was Jonah's Great Refusal. So with men today. God calls them, but they refuse to go. If God calls you to the Christan Ministry, it is at the risk of your life that you stay. There are just two mentioned in the Bible. God and man with Jesus Christ trying to bring you to Him. So there are only 2 places in your life Tarshish and Ninevah. Ninevah the place of Obedience Whichplace are you at home in? Ninevah may be the far off place with the jeering crowd, while you give your message, but it is the place of Disobedience. There is always a ship waiting to take you there. As Jonah's Great Refusal is a proportional that is good, and leaves poor bruised humanity to be thrown in the heap. God sees the heart, and your ride will be a costly one. As with Jonah , we pay a long of the good and pay one. The devil's toll is a heavy one. He takes away all that is good, and leaves poor bruised humanity to be thrown in the heap. God sees the heart, and your ride will be a costly one. As with Jonah , we pay a lo

We ask for it a careful perusal. Included in its contents will be found a number of attractive announcements from business men of the place who take this means to make known to patrons and the public generally what inducements they have to offer. It is very largely due to their enterprise that the paper is able to make this visit to so many of the residents of Canning and vicinity, and we bespeak for their public spirit the patriotic support which their action merits. It is the aim of the publishers to furnish a medium through which the people of Northern Kings may be given profitable publicity. The advantages which a newspaper offers to a community are many and the fact was never more fully appreciated than at the present time. In view of this and with the hope that its visits from week to week may be effective in making known a very important section of the county and view of this and with the hope that its visits from week to week may be effective in making known a very important section of the county and in promoting the prosperity and success of its citizens, the Canning ACA-DIAN offers its services. During the next few weeks a representative of the paper will call upon you soliciting subscriptions. We ask for her a cordial reception. By becoming a regular reader you assist greatly and what profits the community cannot fail to be in the interest of the community and what profits the community cannot fail to benefit you.
