VERITYS BEAT W.E.P.C.

St. Patricks Won Game at Brantford.

No Change in Standing of I.C. League Teams.

Good Game in International H. C. League.

Less than 100 baseball fans saw Charlie Conkle's Pets go down to defeat at Britannia Park on Saturday afternoon in the Inter-City game, between the W. E. P. C. and the Veritys, of Brantford. But for some loose work on the part of the visitors in the last two innings the home team would have been whitewashed. The Brantfordites had it on the locals in every department, but the pitching. Southon did good work on the slab and struck out fifteen men.

In the eighth Verity scored their last run, making their total 3. The first two up went out. Garbut got a base on balls, McHugh, the Verity's big first baseman, hit three for three bases, bringing Garbut home. He got to one of Southon's benders and with a terrific swing, knocked the ball to the left field fence. In the latter part of this inning the W. E. P. C. got a few more runs. They made two runs. Buscombe was the first man up; he got to first. Hennessy struck out. Howard got to first, "Bus" going to third. Howard stole second and on a hit by Hackbush, both runners came home. Again in the ninth the Pleasure Club tried harder to even up. Memory walked. Fassel hit a liner to the pitcher, taking Memory to second. Manager Conkle, who took Gage's place, hit a fly over short, scoring Memory. It was then up to Patty Hennessy. With Conkle on second, a nice hit would have won the game. But Hennessy struck out. ### ST. PATRICK'S BY ONE RUN.

Brantford, June 28.—(Special.)—The feature of the Inter-City League game here Saturday between the Goid, Shapley & Muir team and St. Patrick's was the home run drive of Moran, the St. Patrick's left fielder and his sensational catch in the ninth, when the home team had the bases filled, with two men out and a run needed to tie the score. Shea drove a liner to Moran, who went back to the fence for it, and gloved the ball with one hand, falling over with the catch. It was a great piece of work and turned defeat into victory for St. Patrick's. Outside of these features, Burke's double play in the 7th, when St. Patrick's had three men on bases, was worth while. The Goid, Shapley & Muir team scored one in the third and one in the sixth, a passed ball by Brennan being responsible for the first and Padden's errors for the second. Smith and Simpson each allowed nine hits, the Brantford men getting seven at the plate. Eleven Windmills died on the bases, and two were made due by the showing the fine defensive work of the Irishmen. Freddie Minnis, the local catcher, contributed two bad throws, which helped some in the scoring. Robert Lyle umpired and the crowd numbered 600.

INTERNATIONAL H. C. LEAGUE.

There was only one game played on the I. H. C. field on Saturday. The game between the Erecting Room and the Watchmen was postponed until some night during the week. The game between the Tool Room and the Foundries resulted in a win for the former by a score of 11 to 1.
Baseball fans were treated to some regular National League baseball playing for the first five innings, as the score stood 1 to 0 at the end of the 5th inning. Commencing with the 6th the Tool Makers started to pound Blackstone's curves, and Braidwood went in to box in the 8th, with a little better success, but the damage had all been done by this time, and all he could do was hold them down. Gerhardt thought he was playing in the heavy-liftweight series when he made a bee line from home to second. (You can't play tricks like that, Fred, on a live umpire. Gaurt, the boy short stop of the Tool Room, can show them all a thing or two, and the old saying, "Valueables are done up in small packages," holds good in his case.)

Line-up as was as follows:
Tool Room—Jento c.f., Gerhardt r.f., McAvlin 1b., Gurry s.s., Lewington 3b., Lucas 2b., Manning l.f., Pitts p., Hurley c.
Foundries—L. Bolton c.f., Braidwood 1b., Blackstone p., Murphy 2b., Barnes 3b., Barnes r.f., H. Bolton c., Droucher s.s., Whitely l.f.
Umpire—Bert Farrell.

PROF. D. B. McKELLAR TELLS ABOUT THE RACE.

The Psychological Reason Why Longboat Defeated Alfred Shrub.

Prof. D. B. McKellar, of Toronto, a phenologist, who formerly lived in this city, writes as follows in regard to Saturday night's race at Hanlan's Island:

It is a well-known psychological fact that Englishmen have self-esteem highly developed. In truth, this faculty, along with firmness, courage, inactivity, friendship, acquisitiveness, constructiveness and strong intellectual capacity makes an Englishman what he is the world over.

But some Englishmen also have a strong faculty of "approbation." Such a one is Alfred Shrub. This is the element in human nature that seeks praise, applause, appreciation, and is the element with which so many are endowed over-strongly who appear upon the public platform. It is an element of mind which all first-class phenologists know has a tendency, when perverted, as it often is, to upset one's nervous system. This is "just what happened to Shrub." From the start of the race until perhaps the eighth mile, until the lap was gained on Longboat, this little Englishman used up enough nervous energy through this "sensitive centre of his brain" to have run ten miles more easily. Every time he passed my position on the stand, he was greeted with a mixture of derisive hoots, groans and grunts of every description, which "got him" every time, as was evidenced by the turning of his head towards the stand, and the expression of disgust, offended dignity, and a determination to "do or die" was plainly visible to me—a man who looks into the mind. I must say this unfair treatment of such a game, manly and intelligent athlete as is Shrub "galled" me considerably. It shows a very low development of athletic fairness and honesty in those making use of such tactics to unnerv him. Black or white, give them fair-play is my motto.

Yes, this tumult was of a kind to unnerv this intelligent, courageous little Englishman, who, by the way, runs "on his heart," by the influence of this faculty which dislikes adverse criticism so and lives on praise. I could see him weakening after ten miles, and offered to bet he would not go seven miles. His bent-over form contrasted poorly with "our Indian" Tom Longboat, who runs like a pouter pigeon, chest thrown out full and head thrown back with eyes on nothing but the track, running, as I would say, with the faculty of individuality, determination, at least in ten miles, and eventually Tom Longboat has a large faculty of caution (shown in high cheek bones in the face, and a great width of head, where the hat usually pinches), and it requires a strong exercise of determination and hope to keep this element down when a man like Shrub is slowly but surely making a lap on him.

Some say this Indian athlete is not a heavy runner. Well, now, I tell that to a phenologist. He is the ideal form of long-distance, and that's his race. Physically, both men were fit. Mentally, the Indian beat Shrub, because of the fact that he did not use the nervous centre—approbation, which plays to the grandstand—but ran with determination, courage, and a good physical development, with a strong conviction that he could hold Shrub to a lap. He had no hand in the race, and it makes him stronger for victory. If Shrub had not been so anxious to run his "time-table" race, and show off his speed by lapping Longboat, he would have had a fighting chance to win.

That the best long-distance man won, everyone must admit. But if Alfie cuts out approbation he will improve his long-distance speed much.

HYLAND WON FROM CROSS IN 41ST ROUND.

San Francisco, June 28.—Fighting Dick Hyland knocked out Leach Cross, of New York, in the forty-first round of a scheduled 45-round bout at Colma Arena Saturday afternoon.

The fight was one of the most sensational of modern ring history and was characterized by the gameness and recuperative powers of the New York pugilist-dentist. He was floored fully fifteen times during the contest, and after the twenty-fifth round fought practically on the defensive only.

This was Cross' initial battle on California soil and the first time he had fought over ten rounds. He started in as chipper as a lark. For the first ten rounds he was the acme of coolness. His great cleverness gave him the advantage of the earlier rounds, and he looked for a time as though he would outpoint and outbox his rugged antagonist. In the twelfth, Hyland, catching Cross off his guard, shot a wicked right to the jaw, and

CRUISING RACE.

Small Fleet Went From Here to Oakville.

On Saturday afternoon the R. H. Y. C. and the V. Y. C. joined in a cruising race to Oakville, for boats in class A and B. Only a small fleet participated in the race. As the wind was light time was out of the question. The winners were:

Class A—Petrel 1, Invader 2, Vedette 3, Monsoon 4.
Class B—Brenda 1, Whiz 2.
At Oakville the sailors had a pleasant time, the R. C. Y. C. of Toronto, having held a race to that port, and about 30 boats participated.

The Victoria Yacht Club held a race for 16-foot skiffs on Saturday afternoon over the bay course. The start was at 3 o'clock, and the finish as follows:

Clubs	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Cliff Edward	5	15	.25
Flint	5	15	.25
Royal Flush	5	15	.25

These three skiffs and the Unique will go to Toronto to-morrow night to compete in the L. S. A. regatta, to be held off Hanlan's Island on Wednesday and Thursday. The race for the Frank E. Walker cup will take place on Dominion Day.

GOOD RACING AT H.J.C.

Sport of Kings on Saturday Best Ever.

A Record Breaking Crowd Was Present.

Creel Won the Tuckett Stakes in Fast Time.

There was a record breaking crowd at the Hamilton Jockey Club track on Saturday afternoon, when the best race that was ever presented to race goers here was run off. Over 7,000 persons were at the track. The Toronto special came in two sections, bringing over 2,500. A special from Buffalo brought in 400, and there were many racing enthusiasts from Brantford, London, Woodstock and other points. The members' stand and lawn was filled with a fashionable gathering—society turned out even better than on opening day. The heat was intense, and many persons were overcome in the betting field, where the largest crowd gathered between races. Several of the bookies had to quit on account of the heat. Nearly fifty books did business in the broiling sun, and the speculation was brisker than on any day of the meeting.

The racing was of a high order and good time was made. The track record of 1:46 2/5 for a mile and a sixteenth, made by Cave Adam, was equalled by Creel in winning the Tuckett selling stakes from Centre Shot and St. Elmwood. The last named came very strong in the stretch and would have won at a longer distance.

Phil. Chinn's Golden Butterfly ran a good race and won, going away in the fifth. Fair Lotus set the pace to mid-way and succumbed to the winner, but had enough left to stall off the favorite.
