VICTORY!

The Storm is Past--We've Had Our Fun; The Grits, You See, Were "on the Run."

They Ran, So Well to Let You Know There's No Such Thing as "Mowat Must Go."

"His Hour Has Come"--Once More You See

He Is Not Dead Politically.

He's Built Upon a Different Plan, Ontario's Ideal "Grand Old Man."

He Feared Not Brazen Foes to Face, And Beat Them Fairly in the Race.

Intolerance Now Hides its Head.

The "Protestant Horse" is Worse Than Dead.

And Never More Will Strife be Seen Between the Orange and the Green.

And Jew and Gentile, French and Turk Can in our Broad Ontario Work.

And Harmony Remain Always Twixt Creeds Forever and a Day. And Bigotry Bows Down its Head

And Shows it is but Poorly Bred.

And Mowat's Hour Has Come--He'll Stay--Ontario's Safe, "Hurrah, Hurrah!"

"Five o'clock" on Thursday, June 5, 1890, has passed and gone. The voice of the people has been heard, and yet OLIVER MOWAT'S "hour has not come," in the sense that the Tories looked for. Once more the electors of Ontario have gone to the polls, and with no uncertain sound have they endorsed the policy of Ontario's Grand Old Man.

show that the Reformers have carried 56 seats, the Conservatives 30, and there are five from which returns have not come in of sufficient reliance to place the candidates on one side or the other of the political fence.

Some well-known politicians have, however, dropped from the saddle, and it will be learned with regret that Mr Mowat has lost two of his trusted colleagues at the Cabinet Board in the persons of Hon. J. M. GIBSON, of Hamilton, and Hon. CHAS. DREY, of West Simcoe. But while Mr Mowat has suffered in the defeat of these gentlemen a brace of Mr MREDDITH'S trusted lieutenants have bitten the dust and the Legislative halls that knew them will know no more the presence of ORCHERTON, of North Grey, and FRENCH, of Grenville. Up in Grey the "Grits were on the run" to the extent of 350 of a majority against the Empire's managing editor.

Nearer home we have cause for congratulation. Old Huron has kept firm in the faith, and sends three straight supporters of the Government in J. T. GARROW, THOMAS GIBSON, and ARCHIE BISHOP. In West Huron Mr GARROW made a grand fight, and, despite the employment of the meanest tactics on the part of opponents, and base treachery on the part of a few alleged Liberals of bigoted and intolerant nature, has been successful in keeping the constituency in line by something better than its normal majority. Mr GARROW ran against an admittedly strong man, for no Tory candidate ever before placed in the field exceeded Mr ROBERTS in character, ability, or in the strength of the cries which were raised to influence the electorate in his favor. GARROW had not the prestige of being an old parliamentarian and a Cabinet Minister, but came as a new man into the political arena, and his triumphant return by a solid and substantial majority is a tribute not only to his personal worth, but to the cause which he espoused.

The battle has been fought and won, and the Province is still safe. The sun shone this morning as brightly as ever before and the gloom on the countenances of our Tory friends fails to cause its radiance to pall. Once more an appeal to Race and Creed by Mr MREDDITH has failed of effect, and it has been proved that Sense and Worth bear the palm, and Bigotry and Intolerance are not words to conjure majorities and capture Cabinets.

Old Huron is safe; Ontario is not in danger. MOWAT won't go.

WHEN THE RETURNS CAME IN

Shortly after 5 o'clock the Conservatives of the section began to show up in large numbers, but when it was found that Goderich had remained firm in the faith, that the Saltford Tory vote had dropped, that the abnormal opposition majorities expected from Wingham and Clinton had not materialized, and that Blyth had tied where a Tory majority of 21 had previously existed, there was no blun in Gilead for them. Later on, when it was learned from Hamilton that Hon. J. M. GIBSON was defeated, Dr HOLMES raised the drooping spirits of his friends by stating in his inimitable way, "The first of Mr MOWAT'S Cabinet Ministers has gone," and the smile on the countenances of some of his satellites was fully a yard wide. Later on as the returns came in to Victoria Hall, the Conservative headquarters, a wet blanket was spread over their rosy anticipations, and very early in the evening the telegraphic returns from outside points lost their interest to Tory ears.

The Reformers, on the contrary, took things coolly and calmly from the start. Their returns were received at the Grand Opera House, where a large gathering waited patiently while the reports came in, varying the monotony by rousing cheers as the favorable returns continued to come in. When it was ascertained that MOWAT would not go and that GARROW'S hour had come, Messrs GARROW and MCGILLICUDDY were loudly called upon to address the large gathering and each made a short but enthusiastic address congratulating the electors on the success of the contest, not only in West Huron, but throughout the Province.

A large bonfire in front of Mr GARROW'S residence, Montreal-st., gave the rising generation an opportunity to let their political zeal effervesce. There was no disorder, no tearing down of signboards, no blackguardism, but everything went off in direct contrast to the Tory jubilee over the Dominion election in 1887.

The members of the county council were all anxious to take part in the Provincial election on Thursday, and with this object in view when they met on Tuesday a motion to adjourn to meet again on the 17th was carried. Some of the members, however, think there will be a "hereafter" to this action when the municipal elections come on.

CONVICTED.—James Wilson, of West Wawanosh, charged with stealing a mare from James Pollard, of the same township, was brought before His Honor Judge Toms on Tuesday last. The circumstances were that prisoner stole the horse from Pollard and drove to Pilkington, near Elora, where he traded the stolen animal to one Thomas O'Connor for another horse. Constable Day, of Wingham, and Pollard, the owner of the stolen horse, followed prisoner and succeeded in arresting him at Milton, Halton county, at the residence of his father-in-law. Prisoner was found guilty of horse-stealing, and remanded until June 10th for sentence. The case created quite an excitement and a large number of residents of Wawanosh were present in court during the trial.

TRINITY SUNDAY AT ST. GEORGE'S.—On Trinity Sunday an event of unusual interest took place in St. George's church, it being the occasion of the ordination of a number of students to the diaconate and two deacons to the priesthood. After a discourse suitable to the occasion had been delivered by Rev W. A. Young, His Lordship Bishop Baldwin, assisted by Archdeacon Sandys and Rev. Mr Young, performed the ordination ceremony. In the afternoon His Lordship officiated in St. Stephen's church, Goderich township, and in the evening Archdeacon Sandys occupied the pulpit in St. George's. The singing, both services was excellent, and very appropriate to the occasion, which shows that Mr Dowling, the choir-master, is well fitted for the position. Following are the gentlemen ordained: Priests—Messrs Thompson and Reilly; deacons—Messrs W. R. Diehl, L. O. Diehl, Corbett, Goldberg, Sims, Wood, Hale, Ghent, Serman, Cooperwaite and Whelan.

THE WHISTLING CONCERT.—The concert under the auspices of the Young People's Association of North-st. Methodist church on the evening of Friday last, in the Grand Opera House, was well attended. The whistling of Miss McManis was the feature of the evening, and was one of the most interesting and unique performances ever heard in Goderich. The whistling was most effectively done, and in the "Mocking Bird" and "Last Rose of Summer" caught the audience greatly. Excellent solos were also rendered by Dr Richardson and Mr E. C. Belcher; a humorous reading, "James Kaye at Balmoral," was capably given by Mr S. Malcolmson, and a couple of excellent recitations were given with fine feeling and powerful portrayal by Mrs A. E. Fridham, who stands in the front rank of reciters in this part of the Province. The Young People of North-st. Methodist church are to be congratulated on the success which attended their concert.

DEATH AT PENETANGUISHENE.—The sad news reached this city on Friday of the death at Penetanguishene of Mrs (Rev) H. Currie (nee Mary Walker). She came from Goderich to this city in 1868 to take charge of the senior girls' school, and efficiently performed her duties up to September, 1871, when she resigned. During the time she was connected with the Guelph schools she gave the utmost satisfaction to the Board of School Trustees and to the parents of children entrusted to her care, and when she left the Board unanimously adopted a resolution expressive of their regard for her, and their satisfaction with the progress made by her pupils, as evidenced at public examinations, and a number of whom lifted certificates as teachers from the county Board of Examiners. After she left this city she was for a time teacher in an advanced school in Brooklyn, N. Y., and also in the Ladies' College, Ottawa. Subsequently she married the Rev Hugh Currie, of the Presbyterian church, who had a charge for several years in Keady, in the county of Grey, before removing to Penetanguishene. The deceased leaves her husband, two daughters and aged father and sisters to mourn their loss. The deceased was a daughter of Mr John Walker, formerly head master of the High school at St. Thomas, and who is still alive and resides in that city. She has one sister (Mrs Wm. Hart) residing in this city, who, together with the other members, will have the sympathy of their many friends.—Guelph Herald.
