VENEZUELA WEARY OF CASTRO'S DICTATION

Special Envoy Deputed to Make Peace With Europe Tells of Castro's Downfall—Gomez Found He Could Not Remain Faithful to People's Demands. Paris, Jan. 11—"Castro's downfall," said Special Envoy Poincaré, formerly Castro's minister of foreign affairs, who arrived here last night from Venezuela to make peace with Europe, was the result of a conflict between the country's ambition to carry peaceful internal and foreign policies, and Castro's policies which were rapidly jeopardizing Venezuela's independence. It was brought about by the necessity of averting a revolution.

IMPULSIVE INSANITY.

Captain Hains Suffering From It, Says Alienist. Fishing, N. Y., Jan. 13—The trial of Thornton J. Hains passed the stage where testimony is developed from medical experts and alienists. Hains' counsel placed on the stand Dr. L. Samuel Manson, an alienist, who, after listening to a hypothetical question, declared that on August 15, when Captain Hains shot William E. Annis, he was suffering from "impulsive insanity." Dr. Manson stated he had not treated Captain Hains as his patient, but had simply observed him. It was then that the hypothetical question was read to the alienist. The reading occupied an hour and fifteen minutes.
