A Curious Contrast.

The state of affairs in Tripoli today appears to afford a curious contrast to what took place some thirty years ago in Egypt.

What a remarkable contrast is afforded by the intervention of Italy in Tripoli, the other Turkish possession in Africa.

hand since writing the two paragraphs which precede this does not affect the trend of the suggested explanation of the cause of seeming inactivity at Tripoli.

Man Drowned.

George Brown, of Spaniard's Bay, was drowned there last Saturday night. He had returned from the French Shore Saturday and at night was coming on shore when the accident occurred. It was very dark and a lighted lantern that he had with him went out.

The Storm Does Much Damage.

The rain and wind storm of Saturday night and yesterday morning was the most severe witnessed in the city for a number of years and resulted in great damage to the city streets and many houses. It began about 4 p.m. and by midnight a hurricane of S.E. wind prevailed while rain fell in torrents for hours.

House Beaten In.

In the midst of the rain and wind storm of Saturday night several tons of gravel were carried down over the hill at the north Battery, and striking Levi Snelgrove's house in the rear smashed it in. Water and gravel filled the kitchen, the flooring of which had to be prized off to let the material down through.

Fish Very Plentiful.

The Prospero reports that when she was at Battle Hr. there were about 14 sail of bankers in that neighborhood all doing well. From Battle Hr. to Cape John codfish is more plentiful than for any period during the season and at Griguet when the Prospero was there one banker just off the coast took 40 qts. cod from one set of trawls.

Solway's Report.

The s.s. Solway, on the way from Labrador, left Trinity at 8 a.m. to-day. Capt. Parsons sent this message to the Reid Nfd. Co.: "Arrived at Nain Sept. 24th; Stella Maris there waiting. Wind west and northwest, strong; fine the whole trip. All the floaters that were fishing up north have left for home; fishery over. The stationers are all getting ready to leave. Fish most all made and shipped. Hawke's Harbor has 15 whales."

A Railway Laborer's Grudge.

The most expensive act of damage ever committed by a railway worker was that of an Italian navy employed on the construction of a tunnel through one of the mountains in the Black Forest. Having a grudge against his foreman, he succeeded one night in altering the position of the stakes which marked the course of the work.

Will Cross Atlantic in Small Motor Boat

Philadelphia, Sept. 23.—Braving the perils of the broad Atlantic, G. S. Ruhland, of Philadelphia, will attempt to cross the ocean in a motor boat, the Regal Victor, accompanied by a volunteer crew of six men. The little craft is being built at St. Michaels, Md. So far two men have been selected to accompany Mr. Ruhland. They are George Olsen and M. D. Bangs, of Camden, N. J., and upon Mr. Bangs will in a large measure depend the fate of the expedition, for he will have control of the two gasoline engines.
