A Century of Methodism in St. John's, Nfld.,

By PROF. J. W. NICHOLS, F.S.A.

A Book of Exceptional Interest, Reference and Instruction for Every Methodist Home in the Colony.

This book contains an account of the Centenary Celebration of Methodism in St. John's, recently held there on June 20th and 21st, 1915, together with a copy of the magnificent Oration delivered in Gower St. Church on that occasion by REV. GEORGE J. BOND, B.B., LL.D. and also a description of the Unveiling Ceremony, when HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR, SIR W. E. DAVIDSON, K.C.M.G., officially unveiled the Mural Tablet placed in that Church to celebrate the introduction of Methodism into St. John's.

The whole is artistically printed on fine half-toned paper and profusely illustrated by over 100 choice photographs of present and past Ministers, Churches and Schools.

Accompanying the Photographs is a Biographical Sketch of the Methodist Ministers stationed in St. John's within the past 100 years, together with briefer notes on the growth of Methodism and some views of historic landmarks of a vanished St. John's.
