New Relief For Constipation,
"LES FRUITS"

Physicians agree that with the modern habits of living, constipation is likely to be always with us.
 They also agree that the constant use of any drug for the relief of constipation is exceedingly unwise —unwise for two reasons.
 First, a drug constantly used loses its effect and requires a constantly increased dose. Second, because the constant use of any drug is bad anyway.
 So the cry is constantly going up from the constipated, "What can we do?" It will be interesting to a great many to know that an answer has been found in the re-discovery of a method which was used with great success by our Forefathers, and in Arabia far back in the twelfth century. The food is called "Les Fruits" because it is composed entirely of figs, dates, prunes, raisins and the leaves of each with the substitution of the Alexandra leaf for the raisin leaf. The taste is pleasant, if not to say delicious, and the effect is exceedingly satisfactory.
 Try it and be convinced.

Where Drugs
Come From.
 To form the collection which fills the drawers, bottles, and jars of even the most unpretentious druggist's shop, tax is levied upon almost every country in the world. North, south, east, and west, our drugs come to us, and they reach our shores in such strange forms that not one person in a thousand, seeing them in the rough at the docks, or in any of the great wholesale stores, would be able even to guess at the names and natures of half of them.
 Who, for example, would connect a great pile of dry, thin twigs, neatly tied into small bundles, with sarsaparilla, the great blood-purifier? These twigs are the creeping roots and rootlets of a prickly shrub that grows in Jamaica, and they are worth from 5d. to 2s a pound.
 Somewhat similar in appearance is specaucania, which also comes to us in dry twigs, being part of the trailing root of a plant found in the damp forests of Brazil. These roots receive no preparation, save drying, before they are shipped off to Europe via Montevideo. They are packed in large sacks, and the workman who opens the bales must beware of breathing the pungent, irritating dust given off, and which is productive of unpleasant results if incautiously inhaled.
 Castor oil, too, is hard to recognise in the pretty little brown beans, spotted with black, and with polished skins, that arrive in bags from India.
 They look far too attractive to suggest the much-hated dose of our early days.
 Aloes, the bane of many nauseous medicines, may be seen in its crude form as a solid mass, resembling brown sealing-wax, packed in heavy wooden boxes, from which it is chopped out in flakes with a chisel and hammer. It is of different qualities and prices, according to whether it comes from Arabia, Scotia, or the West Indies, and may fetch any sum from 25s. to 180s. a cwt. Aloes is the juice of the big fleshy leaves of the plant of that name. This juice is pressed or evaporated from the leaves and poured into chests or kegs in a semi-solid state, hardening presently into a solid block. Not infrequently it is enclosed in the dried skins of monkeys, and in this strange form brought to market.

HOW YOU CAN TELL
GENUINE ASPIRIN
 Only Tablets with "Bayer Cross" are Aspirin—No others!

If you don't see the "Bayer Cross" on the tablets, refuse them—they are not Aspirin at all.
 There is only one Aspirin, that marked with the "Bayer Cross"—all other tablets are only acid imitations.
 Look for the "Bayer Cross"! There it is real Aspirin, for which there is no substitute.
 Aspirin is not German but is made in America, and is owned by an American Company, all rights being purchased from the U. S. Government.
 Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" have been proved safe by millions for Pain, Headache, Neuralgia, Colds, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Neu-ritis.
 Handy tin boxes of 12 tablets—also larger "Bayer" packages, can be had at any drug store.
 Aspirin is the trade mark (Newfoundland Registration No. 161), of Bayer Manufacture of Monoceticacidester of Salicylicacid.

A Hot-Headed Poet.
 Someone once offered Gabriele D' Annunzio, Italy's greatest living poet and aviator, whose recent raid on Fiume caused such a flutter, $3,200 for a series of lectures in South America.
 "Thanks," he replied, "I have no wish to leave the ocean for a box of cigars."
 The reply was typical of the man who writes his poetry clad in a robe of cloth of gold and whose stock of fancy waistcoats and neckties is the envy of the Beau Brummells of the world.
 By the way, his real name is Tom-maso Rapagnetta, but as this was considered by him too commonplace for a poet, he changed it. His assumed name means "Gabriele the Messenger."

What is a Kewmack?
 A reference to "Kewmacks" by counsel to the Douglas-Pennant inquiry, may possibly cause thoughtful people to wonder where the habit of abbreviating is likely to stop. "Wacks" is just tolerable, if not very elegant; "Wrens" is ingenious, if rather obvious. But "Kewmacks" is frankly horrid. Really, we would sooner articulate "Queen Mary's Auxiliary Army Corps" than invent monstrosities like "Kewmacks!" But of course, there's no accounting for tastes.
 Official circles in England have a well-known penchant for verbal economy. In civil departments it is bad enough; in the army, it is extracra-bular. Unfortunately, the mere initials of bodies or of institutions seldom lend themselves with happy effect to re-formation into words. Hence the inevitable cacophony. Initials used alone, on the other hand, tend to ambiguity. Does M.P. stand for Member of Parliament, or for Military Police?
 So the dabbler in cryptograms has sometimes concluded that a short cut is often the longest way round.

At Odds With Watts.
 (From the Lewiston Journal.)
 It was one of the good old Isaac Watts hymns. The congregation had just risen at the Congregational Church in Augusta to sing.
 "We will omit the first and fourth verses," said Rev. Dr. Scob. "And tell us why. You will notice that the two verses in question begin like this:
 Great God how infinite thou art What worthless worms are we.
 "Now, it is bad enough to be a worm, but to be a worthless worm is more than I think we ought to be called upon to endure." As a consequence the two verses in question were omitted.

"For the Blind."
 A small storekeeper, to the surprise of his brethren, suddenly decorated his window with a gorgeous new blind.
 "Nice blind of yours, Isaac," quoth his neighbor.
 "Yes, Aaron."
 "Who paid for it, Isaac?"
 "The customers paid, Aaron."
 "What! The customers paid for it, Isaac?"
 "Yes, Aaron. I put a leedle box on my counter, 'For the blind.' And they paid for it."—Ex.

War's Effect on Birds.
 It is a curious fact that the effect of war on birds is not that which one is led to expect. When a Zeppelin flew over the pheasant hunting preserves in England, the shrill cry of these birds warned the country for miles around of the approach of the airships.
 But the nightingale never stopped his song unless a flying machine was directly over his head. The birds at the front paid little attention to the din and roar of battle, often singing while a bombardment was in progress. Their nests were found under the roofs of the railroad stations. The partridge and the lark often rested directly in the line of fire, and during the intervals of firing the song of the lark could be heard. The swallows upon their return from warmer climates, finding their previous nesting places destroyed, built their new homes in the mouths of deserted cannon and in trench reinforcements.

Germany Must Make Good.
 Demand will be made of Germany that all violations of the armistice shall be made good. This has been decided upon by the Supreme Council, which has completed the protocol to the German treaty. The protocol provides that Germany shall surrender cruisers and destroyers to replace those sunk at Scapa Flow, and also surrender floating dry docks, lighters, trains, tugs and other naval equipments equal in value to that of the first-class battleships destroyed, which Germany cannot replace. There is no provision in the protocol as to how the warships and naval supplies shall be divided among the Allied and associated powers. Germany has been invited to send a commission to Paris to sign the protocol and attend the formal ratification of the treaty.
