Notes on the Guelph Central Exhibi-HATS CAPS AND FURS

Amongst the many advantages result-g from the establishment of such an Exhibition as has just been held, not the least prominent to farmers and others is the great facilities it affords for the purchase and disposal of stock. An im-mense business was done in this respect during last week. Purchasers were pres-ent from nearly all portions of the Do minion, and in considerable numbers rom the States. Indeed, we heard it as-legisted that the transactions were much more numerous at the Guelph Central than at the Provincial at Hamilton. than at the Provincial at Hamilton. Many of of our noted sheep-breeders were cleaned out of everything disposable in that class of stock, and breeders of stock from a distance did not hesitate to say eir trip to Guelph had been, in uniary sense, most profitable. We see only able to gather but a compara-ely small list of the sales made, which seemlary sense, most profitable. We were only able to gather but a comparatively small list of the sales made, which we subjoin:—

Mr John Miller, Pickering, sold one imported shearling ram, to Mesars. Heal & Clarke, Ohio, a shearling ram to Mr. Thos McCrae, and one do, to Mr. Daniel Moallister. Mr. Jas. Cowan, Guelph, told a Durham bull calf to M. Perdue, Chinguacousy. Mr. Geo. Hood sold his amons Hereford fat seer to Satchell Bros., Ottawa, for delivery at Christmas, Mr. W. Whitelaw, Guelph, sold one aged apported Leicester ram, ten ram lambs, everal ewe lambs, also a Durham two cars old helfer to go to the County of gruce, a Durham cow to Mr. Thos. Henserson, Guelph, and two bull calves, Mr. Whitelaw's sales this fall already mount pto about $1,000. Mr. James Anderson old 4 shearling Southdown ewes to Mr. livers, of Riverston, and has been offered 150 for the Durham bull, "Darling Dake," which has been refused. Mr Evan Glomand, Guelph, sold 2 Cotswold ewe smbs for $47 the pair, and a Cotswold am lamb for $45 to Mr. James Yright, at $11 per head. Messrs. J. & L. McQueen, Pilkington, sold their 2nd trize Durham bull ("Darling Dake," which has been refused. Mr Evan felomand, Guelph, sold to $45 to Mr. James Yright, at $11 per head. Messrs. J. & L. Mr. Jos Parkinson, Eramosa old a Leicester ram Iamb for $40, 1 do $30, no to Messrs R. Watt & Soas, Paleerston. Mr. Thos. McCrae, Guelph, ed also heard that Mr. J. Gerrie, and a matched span of team orses for $700 to a lumberer in the Statos, and that Mr. Hector (Caig, Beyerley, has sold his team, 2nd ize agricultural class, to a lumberer in a Cutawa district for $400.

accaig, Beverley, has sold his team, 2nd arize agricultural class, to a lumberer in he Ottawa district for $400.

As considerable curiosity has been vinced to learn the attendance at the sat exhibition, would state that 22,107 clares were taken at the gates; this, of ourse, includes members tickets, which will foot up somewhere in the vicinity of one thousand.

will foot up somewhere in the vicinity of one thousand.

We have no doubt that the hostile procedure of the Grand Trunk Company acted injuriously on the attendance at the Exhibition, as in spite of the promises made by certain of its officials, and on the faith of which the Directors of the Exhibition made a public announcement that return tickets, at a single fair, would be available on the G. T. R. as far east as Kingston, at least for exhibitors, fand westward from Toronto for both visitors and exhibitors, full fare was charged at many of its stations. Such faithless conduct cannot be too widely disseminated, or too vigoreusly condemned, and reflects the utmost disgrace on the management of a line, towards the construction and maintenance of which Canadians have been required to sacrifice so much.
