I was a selective ever seen on Tecumseh Park. Only one solitary hit was made off his delivery during the entire game. Had Casey been tallied and Sprogell would have had the pleasure of pitching a game in which the great and glorious Tecumsehs made no hits at all. It was in the fifth inning, and Parks hit the ball a lively elip to center. Casey did not estimate the angle of the hit, and by the time he turned to run back the ball fell a foot or two behind him. GOOD FOR LUNATICS.

Dr. Selden H. Talcott, medical superintendent of the New York State Homeopathy Asylum for the Insane, in the annual report of the workings of the asylum commends baseball for its remedial virtues in the treatment of the insane. Contests were had between the asylum nine and noted amateur clubs of neighboring towns, and the Doctor says: "The beneficial effects of the national game upon those whose minds have been depressed or disturbed is very great. The patients in whom it had hitherto been impossible to arouse a healthy interest in anything seemed to awaken and become prighter at the hard crack of the base hits. and by the time he turned to full back the ball fell a foot or two behind him. Thus London was given a two-bagger. The home team scored a run in the eighth en rather rocky errors by Casey and Sales, made no doubt because they had not the heart to whitewash the unfortunate London aggregation which knew not the use of the willow.

It was bad enough to lose the game in this way, but it was literally given away by another method in the second inning. Burton knows nothing whatever about professional ball-playing and his weak work has been crippling the Tecumseh team quite long enough. He is a local man and of course as friends who would like to see him a player, but he should live carefully and practice with the schoolboys for a year or iwo yet. He started the looseness in the unfortunate second inning by a fumble of brighter at the hard crack of the base hits.

Even demented patients were eager watchers of the game. Many cases of melancholia have been stimulated to a happy excitement while watching the fortunes of the asylum nine upon the diamond field. The members of the club became as eager for their daily practice as for their regular meals; in fact, many would prefer to skip a meal rather than miss their daily practice.

las friends who would like to see him a player, but he should live carefully and practice with the schoolboys for a year or two yet. He started the looseness in the unfortunate second inning by a fumble of Dowie's grounder to short. Foulkrod and Twohey followed with hits, but both were retired on their journey round the bases, and had Burton but retired his man not a run would have scored. Two passed balls by Murphy seemed to rattle Mickey Jones, who gave two bases on balls, was hit for a single by Miller and then gave Cartwright his base, forcing in the fourth run of the inning. Mickey then finished the agony by striking out Dowie. Of course there is no reasonable excuse for Jones' rather poor work for the inning in question, but the ordinary on-looker could not but think that with Doyle or anybody else—even one of the catchers—as shortstop Mickey would have retired the side and been on the winning team. In the fourth the only earned run of the visitors was when Miller led off with a single and scored on Casey's double. Reidy, the crack third baseman of Jersey City, has been bought by London, and will soon be with the team. Petty went in the box at his own request for Hamilton on Saturday. He wanted to get even with the Detroits.

Pat Harnett, who was released from the St. Louis Browns for two much conviviality, expects to go to the Louisville team. The Diamond Dusters from the East End are making arrangements to play the Active Baseball Club, of Aylmer, on May double.

Even without a single hit to the Hams' eight London would have won but for disability at one spot to field. The Tecumsehs as at present constituted cannot but in the first place, and cannot win a game in any other way, as only eight points of the ground are covered properly, instead of nine. The statistics of the walk-over are as follows: Rooney Sweeney will be made an Inter-national Umpire, as London and Hamilton have requested Secretary White to appoint

Up to Saturday last the National League record shows Burke, of Philadelphia, and of last season's Torontos, with the best fielding average in center garden, viz., 971, making only 1 error out of 35 chances. His batting average is .215. Donovan's averages are, fielding .889, batting .303; Knight's fielding is .889, batting .294; Brodie's fielding 9.14, batting 3.04. 2.83 earned runs were made off Vickery per game.

CRICKET.

Cricket in London opened this year with the match between Surrey and Hampshire, which was an easy victory for the former county by an inning and 120 runs. The single inning of the winners yielded 281 runs, of which W. W. Read got 162, while Hants got 75 and 86.

runs, of which W. W. Read got 192, while Hants got 75 and 86.

Although the cricket season in England is yet young, two instances of heavy scoring have to be recorded. Magdalen College ran up 557 against Hertford College, Oxford. Playing for the Army vs. the Navy at Portsmouth, Lieut. L. A. Hamilton made 269, thus easily beating the navy total of 162 off his own bat. At the close the army had only lost five wickets for 409.

Messrs. J. P. Evans, G. Graham and J. Jennings were trout fishing at Dorchester Station yesterday and brought home 75 beauties, some of them weighing a pound and a half. Though no rain fell in the city it fairly poured at Dorchester from 5 to 8 o'clock, and the party could not reach home until about 11 o'clock. Their success with the rod is about the best record of Londoners so far this season.

London West Wants Better Terms Be

A meeting of the ratepayers of London West was held in Collins' Hall last evening for the purpose of ascertaining the state of feeling with regard to the amalgamation of that village with the city. Mr. R. S. Murray was elected chairman and after a few emarks, called on Mr. D. C. Macdonald.
Mr. Macdonald reviewed the situation and pointed out the many advantages that and pointed out the many advantages that would accrue to the village from amalgamation. Short speeches were then made by Messrs. W. H. Bartram, W. Smith, W. Scarrow, W. Nicholls, J. B. Allenby, Louis Ludwig and Reeve Lacey, Councilor Spence and Trustee Garrett, the majority of whom were opposed to amalgamation on the terms at present proposed by the city, but if better inducements were held out they would favor it.

but if better inducements were held out they would favor it.

After most of the speakers had expounded their views, Mr. Macdonald again took the platform to move the following resolution:

That this meeting of the ratepayers of the village of London West instructs the Village Council to submit a bylaw to the electors for the amalgamation of the village with the City of London on the terms at present proposed. or London on the terms at present proposed.

Speaking in support of the motion he

London South secured. That suburb, he claimed, was free from debt, but the village was in debt by debentures to the amount of $30,000. He produced a letter of recent date from Mayor Taylor to the effect that the City Council, not having rescinded their former offer, were still willing to take London West into the city on the terms at first proposed.

Councilor Spence objected to the motion. He thought that the village was better off as it was in the face of the terms proposed by the city. He was prepared to prove that the village enjoyed as many advantages now as it would as an outlying ward of the city. If it amalgamated it should receive better terms.

Mr. W. H. Bartram took the platform and moved in amendment to the m Mr. Macdonald:

That this meeting of the ratepayers of the village instructs the Council not to submit any bylaw on this question until such time as a more equitable arrangement has been submitted by the city. Several in the audience rose to second the amendment, which was carried by a large majority.
