Fishing Under Difficulties. Some people are disposed to think that fishing is a very monotonous amusement. But the experience of Yankee fisherman in Lake Erie a few days ago shows that it is not difficult to get up a little excitement in connection with this peaceful occupation that ought to satisfy anybody. It is only necessary to go and fish in forhidden waters: then, when the owner fisherman will get peppered with buckshot, or its equivalent. The Canadian gunboat Petrel found the Yankee tug Sad is our youth, a period of sorrows, Of promised joys that ere we taste are Silver Spray poaching in Canadian waters. The unlucky fisherman was ordered to stop, but he preferred to run. The Petrel is not such a very fast boat; but she carries a little brass gun, which makes up for slow speed. CAR ROWDIES APOLOGIZE

Six Made to Go on Their Knees to Insuited Women.

Brooklyn, Aug. 18.-Members of the Law and Order Club of Brooklyn, recently organized to break up the bands of women on cars returning from Coney Island late at night, arrested six of these pests early yesterday morning and released them only after they had bent or their knees to the women they had insuited and made ample apology.

The six men who got the lesson were on a train of this line with two women. All were talking loudly, and their conversation soon grew so coarse that several women in the car appealed to the guards to compel them to cease. The trainmen's remonstrances were met with shouts of derision, and matters were becoming serious when Edward Hughes and Karl Holsten, two members of the league, who were passengers in the car, stepped forward, and, showing, their shields, arrested the whole party. When the train reached the Third street station the prisoners were taken off, the train being held to await the arrival of the police. The action of the officers had a sobering effect upon the roysterers. and when they realized that a cell awaited them the men lost their brayado and begged for mercy. "Just give us a chance," one of them pleaded, "and we will apologize to every lady in the car, and promise never to misbehave again." Several other members of the league headed by the president, Henry S. Dyruss, appeared on the scene and held a con sultation. They decided to allow the men
