Matinee Called Off, Small House in the Evening-Good Bill at the London.

"By Right of Sword," a romantic rama, with the plot laid in Russia, ind with an American adventurer, naking everybody who opposes him look like 30 cents, was the attraction at the Grand last night. Though the matural defects and neutralizin matinee billed for the afternoon had the results of time and neglect. at the Grand last night. Though the been called off, the audience at night was deplorably small, for the play is really a good one, and is well staged and well interpreted by a very capable company. Mr. Ralph Stuart appeared as Richard Hamilton, the fire-eating Ameri-can, and in the role he appeared to the utmost advantage, and stamped himself as an actor of rare qualities. Of the support, the work of Miss Mabel Wright, as Olga Petrovitch, was the most worthy.

The bill at the London this week is at once the most laughable and clever-est as yet provided by Manager Bennett. There are three juvenile footlight stars on the bill. The first of these is Baby Owen, a diminutive monologis and comedian, who excels in cleverness any child actor as yet seen in London. Then there is little Ethel Barr, in the very dainty sketch, "The Third Generation." This sweet-faced little missa little blossom of six or seven-exhibits some histrionic qualities which are marvelous in a child of her age. The other acts include a very fine musical turn by Earl and Wilson; a clever novelty sketch, "Marriage Is Sublime," by Haywood and Haywood; the old favortes in London, Jennings and Renfrew, who sing a number of funny songs; Seekes, Wilkes & Co., who have also been seen in London before, but who are always welcome, and Divaro & Co. the military gymnasts, who put on a

What the Advance Readers Say "DEVIL'S AUCTION" TONIGHT. Manager Yale's claim that the 'Devil's Auction" is the eldest in name yet the newest in point of novelty, can rell be substantiated in this, the 23rd edition of this famous spectacle, as everything is new from the time the curtain rises on the first act until it formation scene. "Amor" (Love), a the close of the performance. Not one old feature is retained, and patrons of the Grand certainly have a treat in store for them this evening.

"THE MUMMY AND THE HUM-

MING BIRD." "The Mummy and the Humming Bird," that most brilliant of all modern comedies, will be presented here on Friday next at the Grand Opera House. The play is a shining example of lover and husband; first, apologizing for be-ing right, and afterward begging to be forgiven because Lady Lumley was wrong. But why not? Woman is the sugar of life. Why not be gentle with her and kind to her? Many heartaches, many separations, many divorces, would be avoided, and many homes made happy, if all men followed the example "Mummy" the dear and the Humming Bird." One critic has said, "Go and see 'The Mummy and the Humming Bird'; it will make you wiser, happier and better," The engagement is for one night only and is PADEREWSKI AT MONTREAL The following dispatch was received this morning from Montreal: erewski opened his Canadian tour here last evening at the Monument Nationale, which is the largest concert hall in Montreal, and in spite of hundreds of extra chairs brought into the building, t was totally impossible to accommodate the thronging crowds seeking to gain admission. Every inch of standing-room was taken up, and the stage was completely filled. The enthusiasm was something unprecedented in the history of concerts in this city.
