Drivers Tune Up For Dizzy 500-Mile Grind

Saturday. Indianapolis, May 27 .- An extreme air of confidence pervades gasoline alley at the Indianapolis motor speedway, where the thirteenth in ernational 500-mile automobile ra will be held next Saturday, starting at 10 a.m. All of the drivers have gone about their preparation with an air of bravado that betokens complete satisfaction with their mounts. Never before in the history of the amous auto derby has there been a paralleling practice period. Drivers appear at the track, clad in their Sunday best every day, peep in on their cars, and then go away to a gymnasium to toughen muscles for the long, battering grind of Saturcation.

That speed will be the order of the day is a foregone conclusion with the rapid laps that are being turned in. The star drivers are fooling each other by not driving an entire lap at speed. They post members of their crew between two points and try for speed, then slow down at another part of the track so that rivals clocking them will be thrown off.

However, it is safe to say that there are five crack drivers who will be piloting cars that will be less than one mile an hour different in speed when the starter waves his red "go"

Jules Ellingboe, a star performer on the Indianapolis track, has been named to pilot Jerry Wonderlich's mount, while Jerry, the owner, will run the pit and be ready to give Ellingboe relief should he need it.
