Big Circus of Barnum and Ringling Pleases Crowd of 20,000 in London.

ACTS FIRST-CLASS

Acrobats and Equestriennes Give Performance Never

Equalled Here. Wholesome buffoonery is making history. All down the years clowndom has laughed, cried and jostled itself into the hearts of men and the pages of history. The clown is assured of a very real place for his mimicry by posterity. Clowndom is great, an age-old institution, but new and attained. Yesterday more than 20,000 folks vere entertained in London by the combined circus of Barnum and Ringling. The unprecedented performances of the world's greatest show won great favor, gripping new con verts as well as old patrons. The big-top performances scored an im mense triumph, such as has seldom been witnessed in this district. Clowndom is passing through an era of glorious indecision. The clowr as an individual no longer holds the center of the spotlight. The single spangled and belled jester the sing. ing clown, is no longer the attrac-tion. Today the fashion is a maze of marvellous mimics, thrown upon the sawdust stage in such numbers and with such rapidity that the subconscious mind is crammed with evidence of hilarious farce and whole-some drollery. Eyes and wits drink up great masses of entertaining trickery. A vast store of an usement is provided, not only for a single performance, but to buoy up jaded

New Type of Clown. Not only has the ensemble effect displaced the solo clown, but the fashion in clowndom itself marches marches on somewhere. clown is neither French nor old Eng lish, nor a replica of the early jester in America.

He is all that and more. He is a new type of buffoon which the American circus is developing. Sometimes he wears the grotesque facial plasters of the French circus rings, some-times he imitates animals and folk, but he is a new clown, going some place, to some new uncertain fashion center, with an entertaining indeci sion that is gaining him multitude of new friends. Barnum's and Ringling's great ci cus carries with it a clean and wholesome maze of 21 of the most slack wire, intrepid performances on somersaulting acrobats. Animal Acts. Animal acts are pretty and out-stupendous acts ever attempted. There are hair-raising feats on the standing, with the trained denizen of the jungle and the forest providing new thrills. Daring aerial feats, splendid animal acts, new clown stunts, provided in 21 big settings, included many of the world's best-known performers. May Wirth, bareback rider; Mlle. DARK PICTURE OF VIENNA A dark picture of Vienna is painted by Dr. Prendergast, son of Principal W. Prendergast of the London Normal school, in a letter to his father. "I think structurally, Vienna is the finest city I have ever seen," writes Dr. Prendergast. "But it is a city of ghosts." The writer goes on to tell of the big business establish-
