

EARLY RETURN OF INDICTMENTS

Grand Jury at Los Angeles Proceeding With Inquiry Into Times Explosion—Five Men May be Indicted

SIX WITNESSES EXAMINED YESTERDAY

San Francisco Men Tell About Procuring of Powder at Giant Works—Mr. Rogers Also Testifies

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—The assembling of the thirty witnesses from San Francisco and vicinity marked the phase of the grand jury investigation of the Times disaster today, for with the return of indictments is expected to supply the climax within a week.

Six witnesses were examined today. Among them were Earl Rogers, who directed the search for evidence in the north, and J. D. Ziani, a powder expert. The other four were from San Francisco and vicinity.

Among the witnesses were Earl Rogers, who directed the search for evidence in the north, and J. D. Ziani, a powder expert.

Besides Rogers and Ziani, there were Geo. H. Phillips, assistant manager of the Giant powder factory, Bruce McCull, shipping clerk at Giant, who dispatched the consignment of dynamite ordered by "Everson," "Morris" and "Leonard"; and Harrison Nutter, clerk of a waterfront hardware firm, who sold the aluminum letters to make the name "Peerless," which was substituted for Pastime on the little vessel.

The examination of the rest of the witnesses probably will require the rest of the week. Then will come the indictments, if the evidence developed can stand the test of the grand jury probe.

WRECK OF THE MAINE

Colonel Jasper E. Brady Says it Was Caused by Fanatical Spanish Electrician

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 2.—That Jose Zavaldo, a Spanish electrician, working in Moro Castle, and probably a fanatic, was responsible for the destruction of the battleship Maine was the statement made here tonight by Col. Jasper E. Brady, retired.

Col. Brady says he was one of a company of four who investigated the explosion and reported their findings to President McKinley.

Col. Brady in an address last night at St. George's Episcopal church here, discussed the Maine disaster and attributed it to a submarine explosion.

Col. Brady explains that the board never convened to make its report, but reported individually to the president.

Brady was quoted as saying in his address here last night that Oubens was responsible for the disaster. He denied today that he made such a statement.

New Cholera Cases
ROME, Nov. 2.—Ten new cases of cholera were reported during the last 24 hours, with two deaths.

FRANCE TO GET NEW MINISTRY

Premier Briand and His Cabinet Resign, But Former Retains Office at Request of President Fallieres

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Following the unexpected resignation of the Briand cabinet today, President Fallieres requested Premier Briand to retain his office and form a new cabinet. This task is proving difficult.

TRIES TO SECURE NEW COLLEAGUES

Number of Late Ministers Object to Policy Followed in Dealing With Recent Railway Strike

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Following the unexpected resignation of the Briand cabinet today, President Fallieres requested Premier Briand to retain his office and form a new cabinet. This task is proving difficult.

M. Briand must choose a ministry satisfactory to the changing majority, while a number of radicals are objecting to the policy followed by the late strike. The Temps insists upon the impartiality of a broad programme of social and republican policies against anarchy, which means leniency to strikers.

The resignation of the Briand ministry was directly due to the strenuous opposition to the policy followed by the late strike. The Temps insists upon the impartiality of a broad programme of social and republican policies against anarchy, which means leniency to strikers.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 2.—The Victoria Fruit Growers' Association held here when the exhibit of apples of the King variety was awarded the first prize. The exhibit, an entire barrel, was the centre of attraction, and despite the keen competition, carried off the premier honors.

Hurt in Football Game.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 2.—In a scrimmage between the Yale Varsity and the Freshman football team today, John Reed Kilpatrick, right end, was kicked in the abdomen and side and removed from the field in a stretcher. The coaches tonight were unable to give the extent of his injuries or state how long he would be out of the game.

Sheldon Arrested.
MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—It is reported here that Charles D. Sheldon, broker who it is alleged picked up half a million dollars from a lot of get-rich-quick gamblers in this neighborhood, has been arrested by Pinkerton detectives in Bermuda and that he is being brought back to this city. Sheldons have been in Montreal last month and it was from their identification that he was apprehended. The report of the arrest has not been confirmed.

Verdict of Manslaughter.
WINNIPEG, Nov. 2.—Wm. Alfred Hope, a half-breed, was found guilty at the assizes today of manslaughter in connection with the death of Frederick Smith at Black Bear Island, Lake Winnipeg. He shot Smith and was charged with murder. The wife of the slain man was the principal witness against him and the prisoner's defence counsel did not carry much weight. The fact that he was with liquor at the time of the tragedy is supposed to have induced the jury in reducing the charge to manslaughter, however. He will be sentenced tomorrow.

Death of Henry Pollard's Son.
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Sir Henry Pollard, of the first division of the Society of Knights Bachelor last evening. He guaranteed $5,000 yearly to enable the society to acquire Clifford's Inn as a home. Colonel Pollard, responding to a toast of his health, assured the gathering of the fact and adding loyalty of Canada, when he had done so, however, the policeman clearing the hall, were looking for opportunity of elbowing in every way, in peace and war, commerce and defence. He was glad to see that the "British Empire" movement was diminishing rapidly. The British Empire was no longer a dream but was acknowledged as the platform of all statesmen.

Home for Ex-Army Men.
Col. Wadmore, D. O. C., Favors Scheme to Provide Employment for Ex-Soldiers.
During his official visit last week to the Kootenays, Col. Wadmore, D. O. C., Nelson Daily News on British Columbia as a home for ex-army men. He said: "I am very interested in the new scheme for providing employment in Canada for ex-soldiers and ex-sailors which has been initiated under the patronage of the Duke of Connaught and Lord Roberts. The essentials of the scheme are that bureau of information for ex-army and navy men requiring work are established in all the large cities of the Dominion. These the men may apply and be placed in communication with persons desiring to employ men who have been in one or other of the two services. Such men, by virtue of their training, their discipline and experience in many countries are particularly fitted for work in Canada. Already bureaux of information have been established in the east and in Vancouver and Victoria. They are entitled the British Employment Association for Ex-Soldiers and Sailors."

Meet at Baltimore.
Aviators Begin New Series of Contests at Maryland City—High Flights Made.
BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 2.—Battimore's aviation meet was officially opened today before a large throng of spectators. When the bomb announcing the opening of the contest was fired everyone was absorbed in watching the flight of the plane. The plane, a Drexler, in a try for altitude, 3,000 feet, and Willard, in a similar attempt, took his Curtiss bi-plane to a height of 2,500 feet, remaining in the air 20 minutes. Drexler's flight, however, regained the altitude honors of the day with a record of 4,800 feet. All the aeroplanes regularly entered for the meet are now here and tomorrow the regular programme will begin.

INTERESTS OF THREE LARGE COMPANIES BOUGHT UP BY DOMINION SAW MILL AND LUMBER COMPANY

CALGARY, Nov. 1.—The largest timber deal in the history of the Kootenays was announced here today. By this the Dominion Saw Mill and Lumber Company, Limited, and Lumber Company, Limited, recently acquired the complete ownership of all the interests of the Bowman Lumber Company, the Revelstoke Saw Mills Company and the Yale-Columbia Lumber Company.

The deal, which was put through by the Western Canada Investments of this city, involves considerations amounting in all to over two millions of dollars. Included in the deal are four saw mills, among them those of the Cascade and Nelson, and all the lumber and timber limits of the three companies mentioned, embracing in all 240 square miles, on which it is estimated there are three and a half billion feet of standing timber.

With the interests acquired from the Bowman Lumber Company, a few months ago, the Dominion Saw Mill and Lumber Company now has in its absolute ownership six saw mills, with a capacity of one hundred and fifty million feet of lumber annually, and five and a half billion feet of standing timber.

The Dominion Saw Mill and Lumber Company, Limited, was incorporated in the Old Country last summer for the purpose of acquiring the mills and holdings of the Mundy Lumber Company, but in view of its recent purchase of its capital has been placed at five million dollars, with a bond issue of four million dollars. The company will continue the operations of all its mills, and is at present the most important lumber company incorporated in the province.

The president of the Dominion Company is H. E. Mundy, late of the Mundy Lumber Company, while S. H. Bowman, late of the Bowman Lumber Company, and the Yale Lumber Company, will be manager of the sales department of the new company.

CALLOUS DOCTOR

Case of Dr. Martin, Accused of Neglecting to Provide Medical Attention for His Wife

FRENO, Cal., Nov. 2.—The prosecution in the trial of Dr. Jackson L. Martin on the charge of neglecting to provide proper medical attention for his wife after she had twice attempted suicide, will close tomorrow morning with several hypothetical questions dealing with the customary conduct of physicians in these cases.

Mrs. Alice Brittan, sister of the deceased, Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, occupied the stand yesterday afternoon. She testified that on the lonely ride to Chillicothe, Mo., with the remains of her sister, she urged Dr. Martin to go all the way, that his failure to do so might
