Last spring the Restigouche Automobile Association at considerable trouble and expense erected a huge number of road signs along Restigouche roads. Reports have reached us that some of these signs have been destroyed. An effort should be made to test the names of the owners guilty of this offense and have them severely punished.RESTIGOUCHE RIFLE ASSOCIATION
A meeting of the members of the Restigouche Rifle Association will be held in the Mayors office, Town Hall on Friday evening, 24th inst., at 8 p. m.
This meeting is called for the purpose of re-organization of the association, as required by the Militia Act. Will members please attend this meeting.DR. TRUMAN HERE
Dr. Geo. J. Truman, President of Mount Allison University, Sackville, occupied the pulpit of the Methodist Church at both services on Sunday. His subject was "Education." Large congregations were present at both services. The morning discourse was devoted to the educational influences of the home, while in the evening the subject was covered very eloquently from many standpoints. The singing at both services was of high order and was much enjoyed.CARD OF THANKS
The entertainment committee of the Soldiers' Memorial Hospital Aid wish to thank all those who so generously donated prizes during the fair.Those who donated cigars, and Mr. Allan Christie who donated pins for the Bowling Alley and also Mrs. A. Why Pay Taxes ?

If your property is worth $10,000 the taxes are more than the premiums on an insurance estate of the same value. The value of the latter cannot fluctuate, the rates cannot rise.
