FOURTH BALLOT. 544 Arthur. 41 Logan. 15 Lincoln.

On the fourth ballot Senator Cullom attempted to present to the convention a telegram from Logan. It was objected to and the chair sustained the point of order. Cullom and the Illinois delegation then withdraws the name of Logan and gives for Blaine 34 votes, for Logan 7, and for Arthur 3. (Loud applause and cheers).

When Ohio was called Judge Foraker said Ohio now also in the interests of the party withdraws Sherman and casts for Logan 46 votes. (Tremplaus with excitement.) party withdraws Sherman and casts for James G. Blaine 46 votes. (Tremendous

On the street men were perfectly wild, cheering and throwing up their hats. The city bells are ing up their hats. The city bells are ringing and everybody, republican and democrat, is wild with enthusiasm.

PORTLAND, Me., June 6—There is great enthusiasm here. Special trains from all quarters are carrying enthusiasts to Augusta to-night to congratulate Blaine.

New York, June 6.—The news of the nomination of Blaine spread with lightning rapidity. Groups of people had been watching the bulletin boards during the afternoon, but as it became evident the result would be arrived at before adjournment the numbers increased. The way sult would be arrived at before adjournment the numbers increased. The way the announcement on the bulletin boards of Blaine's nomination was generally received showed consternation among Arthur's adherents, but it quickly passed away and there is every evidence that the republicans of this city will fall into a soid line at once for Blaine.

Alderman Brandon has developed a wonder ful penchant for attending fires. Of course the worthy alderman is a member of the fire committee and we respect his enthusiasm which manifests itself whenever an alarm is husiastic yesterday. He ran to the Court street hall, climbed up on the ladder truck not go very far, however, as when a corner cuer of females in distress, was pitched from the wagon into the middle of the street. The vorst part of the affair was that the firemen did not wait to pick him up. The public will be pleased to hear that our young none the worse for his trouble.
