FRIDAY MORNING, NOV. 6, 1885.

A Restless State.

It does not appear to be well understood as to what is the real situation in the United States. The general impression is that the country is in a state of anarchy, and that the government is unable to maintain order.

As compared with the rest of the world, the United States is in a state of anarchy. The government is unable to maintain order, and the people are in a state of confusion.

The thing to fix public attention upon is the fact that the government is unable to maintain order. The people are in a state of confusion, and the government is unable to maintain order.

There is no use in sending Montreal more advice. It can do no good. Let us leave the matter to the British government, and let them deal with it as they see fit.

There is undoubtedly an increasing sympathy for the protective theory in England. It is natural that such should be the case, as a manufacturer of Great Britain has perceptibly lost ground during the last few years.

There is a set in the county of Wentworth who claim that women have no place in the ground that no place in the Bible is an angel spoken of as "she."

The Dundas street literary circle, London, Oct. held a meeting the other night and debated the question, "Should London be handed?"

circle the government should hang. Surely somebody should be punished for causing so much loss of blood and treasure as occurred in the suppression of the emuets.

The Liberal managers of the opinion that Sir John's gallant gun is loaded, and that he will go off unexpectedly, as it did in 1882.

UNDER THE GALLOWS. Frightful Conduct of a Mother by Her Son—What Does It Mean? Not long ago a weeping mother was led to the gallows by her only son who was soon to be executed.

During a recent trip to the mother's influence in the morning, a character of her offspring, a man who had made a study of human development.

It is said that the federal government can grapple with the big Chicago because it has been formally invested with the power to do so, but that while it is at liberty to attend to the matter.
