THE TROUBLE ABOUT EGGS.

Some Say the Combine Puts Down Prices and Others that It Keeps Them Up.

The World took a walk along Colborne-street and around to Front yesterday afternoon. The industrious dealers whose perpetual care it is to see that the larders of Toronto people are kept supplied, were all on the hurry filling orders and disseminating their goods among the retailers.

The egg men, however, all found time to abate their industry and discuss D. D. Wilson's letter on the egg combine. The opinions were somewhat varied. Here are some things said:

A leading Front-street commission man: When Mr. Wilson says 'eggs,' were selling at these prices, he says what is incorrect. Further, when at Easter eggs were selling at 18 cents the combine put them down to 16c, though they hadn't the goods to give the people. We could get 18 for all we could handle. I sent in and offered to take 100 or 200 cases and pay cash, but they wouldn't sell. They would sell to our customers though. If they don't stop their practices we will put buyers to compete against them in the country, and higher prices will prevail.

A Colborne-street man: The combine is simply a dodge to make money for one house. When I was down at Cannington a short time ago eggs were selling here for 13 cents, and I saw agents of the combine paying 13 cash there. They put the price down here purposely to run the stuff off the market while their agents were stocking up in the country, and the loss they suffered was small as compared with the gain they made by advancing prices when they got control of the supply. Besides this, they took away a good deal of our trade by being, for the time, masters of the situation. This D. D. Wilson must be an arrogant kind of a fellow. He talks about Commercial Union as if what he said the others had to swallow.

Another Colbornite: The egg men lost a good deal of money last year on account of the sudden rises and falls in the Toronto market disturbing their buying for export. They can't buy for export and pay 14 cents a dozen. Germany and other places are shipping to New York and prices are kept lower. It is to the advantage of these men to keep the Toronto market steady, but the only way to do it is to supply all of the commission houses.

A Combinerite who was in town yesterday: We desire to supply the Toronto trade as the trade requires the goods, keeping a smooth easy flow of supply, instead of having the market glutted and bare alternately as it has been in the past. We have no desire to depress prices or to make anything but fair profits. The New York market will govern prices, but keeping Toronto steady will prevent sudden and serious disturbances.

A West Marketer's opinion: I consider the whole thing a grab game to make money for the men in it. It's a rascally piece of business. The excuse of "improving the fowl" is all bosh.

Another Front-street man: Has solved that difficult and much-to-be desired problem which has baffled the skill of the greatest political economists?' Why Wilson beats John Stuart Mill.

At the Combine's Headquarters: 'Local commission houses can get all the eggs they want for local trade if we have them to give out. Indeed it would be less trouble to us to deal with commission men than supply the trade by furnishing small lots to retailers.

A New Law Wanted for Shavers.

Editor World: From a case reported in your journal of Wednesday, respecting a "seed wheat note," I infer that a new law is wanted for public protection in such matters, quite as much as the new law you advocate for libel cases. I note in your report that the jury found there had been fraud in procuring the note, but the noteholders had bought it in good faith and so they awarded them full amount with interest.

Now, for all I know, the plaintiffs may have given full value for this note, and may not belong to the bill-shaving gang who have been the misfortunes of the community, but I submit that if there was a law precluding note buyers from recovering more than was actually paid for a note, with bank interest, there would not be such an easy market as there is for doubtful notes—and therefore not the facilities which now exist for procuring and drying them. Unbusiness people would not have the temptations placed before them for giving notes, which, they never mean, and the absence of this temptation would be a great benefit to the community morally, though not financially to bill-shavers.

PUBLICO.

A Very Innocent Young Man.

John Gould pleaded guilty in the Police Court yesterday to having forged the name of John Marley of Brandon, Man., to a check for $60. The check was cashed by the Merchants' Bank in Toronto, but not until the officials had ascertained there were funds in their Brandon branch and Gould had been identified by a firm of brokers. The prisoner's extenuation was that Marley owed him money and he thought that was a good way to collect it. He was committed for trial. A second charge has been preferred against him of having stolen the title deeds of certain lands belonging to Mr. Marley and having endeavored to negotiate a loan from the London Ontario Loan Company on the strength of the documents. Gould palmed himself off as Marley in order to facilitate his negotiations.

Sault Ste. Marie.

The great auction sale of "Soo" property by Suckling, Cassidy and Co., will take place at No. 6 Leader Lane to-morrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. The property is situated in the finest residential portion of the town, immediately adjoining the Canadian Pacific Railway and grounds. The terms are easy, only one-third cash being required, and a special discount will be allowed purchasers who erecting dwellings within six months. This is a splendid opportunity to acquire a large lot of land at a very small outlay, and from present indications a big boom will strike the "Hub of the Lakes" this season, and purchasers may reasonably hope to double their outlay within a few months. Already a number of lots have been sold and arrangements made for the erection of fine residences on the property. x

Yesterday's Police Court.

Mary Davis, disorderly, $30 and costs; Charles Bailey admitted having maimed his infant son's hand and was remanded until Wednesday; Robert Buchanan and Frank Vale were committed as lunatics; Charles H. Whyman, stealing $22 from James Crawford, three months in the Central Prison; John McCrimmon, attempted highway robbery, sixty days in jail; Thomas Skelly, smashing his wife's furniture, $10 and costs; John Clarke, keeping disorderly house, $30 and costs; Fred Davis, Edward Knipis and James Rowe, pickpockets, fined $10 and costs, $30 and costs and $5 and costs, respectively.

Sir Knight Wm. Lee has returned from a trip to the Lower Provinces, where he has been instituting preceptories of the Royal Black Institutions.

Lodge meetings are largely taken up at present discussing arrangements for the celebration of July 12. It is expected the demonstration in this city will be the largest ever held here.

Application has been made for a warrant for a new Orange lodge in the western district of the city, of which Bro. Ald. Fallis Johnston will be the first worshipful master.

General Hospital Notes.

Mrs. Emily Jane Ward was admitted to the Hospital on Wednesday evening suffering from a dislocated shoulder, the result of a fall.

The clinical examinations of the Medical Council were concluded yesterday afternoon, the examiners being Dr. Cameron of this city and Dr. Irwin of Kingston.

—Like all sterling remedies, Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspepsia Cure deserve a fair trial. It would be absurd to suppose that this or any other medicine of kindred nature could produce instantaneous effects. For the thorough removal of Chronic Dyspepsia, Constipation, Liver Complaint and other ailments to which it is adapted, its use should be continued some time, even after the chief symptoms are relieved. That it then effects complete cures is a fact established by ample and respectable evidence. x

Stocks, Grain and Produce—Coal Freight Rates Fixed—London Money Market—American Securities—Barley Quiet in Oswego—The Egg Trade.

THURSDAY, April 12.

At the Call Board to-day there was quite a crowd in attendance. The only thing dealt in was profanity and fun. When the Secretary took his place on the stand Mr. Thomas Martin of Mount Forest asked permission to address the Board. The caller said that if the remarks related to the Call Board Mr. Martin was at liberty to speak. Mr. Martin then appealed to the President to allow him to speak, but the President supported the ruling already given. The trouble brewed and browed while the caller went through the formal routine, and then the echoes rang.

WALL STREET GOSSIP.

Robert Cochran received this despatch from his New York agents to-day:

NEW YORK, April 12.—The talk last night continued in a light conservative strain. Commission people said that until something definite is known from Washington and the country is made easy on the money question, business in Wall-street will not change much from its present condition. Cautious people will not trade until more favorable conditions. We can't consistently advise them to load up with stocks, and if we did they would not heed us.
