Then Farmer McCaughn summoned his chicken-raising neighbor before the court for trial and issue was joined. The question was not between hen and hen, but between farmer and farmer, or, rather, it was a question as to whose hen was the mother of the chickens. Now ordinary common sense would suggest that as the hatching of chickens is a mere mechanical process, chiefly dependent upon caloric, as science has demonstrated most thoroughly, it is not characteristic, or necessarily even suggestive, of motherhood. "You bet!" said Johnny, "I'd rather And we set them to music at pleasure;
And the song grows glad, or sweet or sad,
As we choose to fashion the measure.
We must write the music, whatever the song,
Whatever its rhyme or meter,
And if if it is glad we may make it sad,
Or if sweet, we may make it sweeter."
