

“ Much bless'd by Providence is Trinidad ;
Flowers and fruits perpetual, trees ever green,
Our scenery most rich and beautiful ;
The people of all nations, countries, races,
French, English, Spanish, Scotch, or Portuguese,
From Afric's or fair India's hotter shores ;
Creoles, Coolies, Chinese, their language,
Manners, customs, every thing so different.”
