

TO BREEDERS OF IMPROVED STOCK.

We have received from Lewis G. Morris, Esq. the following announcement of his next annual sale, which such of our subscribers as are desirous of improving their stock could not do better than attend. Mr. Morris's sound judgment, great industry and enterprise in his particular department coupled with his high standing for honorable dealing, fairly entitle him to the confidence and support of a discerning public.—ED-ITOR C. A.

LEWIS G. MORRIS'

Third Annual Sale, by Auction, of improv'd Breeds of Domestic Animals, will take place at Mount Fordham, Westchester County, (11 miles from the City Hall, New York,) on Wednesday, June 3, 1852.—James M. Miller, Auctioneer.

Application need not be made at private sale, as I decline in all cases, so as to make it an object for persons at a distance to attend. Sale positive to the highest bidder, without reserve.

Numbering about fifty head of horned stock, including a variety of ages and sex consisting of pure bred short horns, Devons, and Ayreshires; Southdown buck lambs, and a very few ewes; Suffolk and Essex swine. Catalogue, with full pedigrees &c., will be ready for delivery on the first of May—to be obtained from the subscriber, or at the offices of any of the principal Agricultural Journals or stores in the Union. This sale will offer the best opportunity to obtain very fine animals I ever have given, as I shall reduce my herd lower than ever before, contemplating a trip to Europe, to be absent a year, and shall not have another sale until 1854.

It will be seen by reference to the proceedings of our State Agricultural Society that I was the most successful exhibitor of domestic animals, at the late State Fair.

It will also offer a new feature to American Breeders—one which works well in Europe; that is, letting the services of male animals; and will solicit propositions from such as see fit to try it. Conditions—The animal hired, to be at the risk of the owner, unless by some positive neglect or carelessness of the hirer; the expense of transportation to and from, to be borne jointly; the term of letting, to be one year or less, as parties agree; price to be adjusted by parties—to be paid in advance, when the bull is taken away; circumstances would vary the price; animal to be kept in accordance with instructions of owner, before taking him away.

I offer on the foregoing conditions, three celebrated prize bulls, "Major," a Devon, nine years old; "Lamarine," short horn, four years old; "Lord Eryholme," short horn, three years old. Pedigrees will be given in catalogues.

At the time of my sale, (and I would not part with them before) I shall have secured 2 or 3 yearly setts of their progeny; and as I shall send out in August next a new importation of male animals, I shall not want the services of either of these next year. I would not sell them, as I wish to keep control of their propagated qualities hereafter.

I also have one imported buck, the prize winner at Rochester last fall, imported direct from the celebrated Jonas Webb; and also five yearling bucks, winners also, bred by me, from bucks and ewes imported direct from the above celebrated breeder; they will be let on the same conditions as the bulls, excepting that I will keep them until the party hiring wishes them, and they must be returned to me again on or about Christmas day. By this plan, the party hiring gets rid of the risk and trouble of keeping a buck the year round. All communications by mail must be prepaid, and I will prepay the answers.

L. G. MORRIS.

DEATH OF FRANKLIN JACKES, ESQ.

It is our painful duty to record the decease of this lamented gentleman from an attack of small pox, at his residence, on Yonge street near this city, on the 16th ultimo. Mr. Jackes was only 43 years of age, and has left a widow and thirteen children, with a large circle of sorrowing friends, to lament his loss. He commenced life in this city as a baker, with no other capital than sober industrious habits and a high moral character, all of which he retained to the last. About fifteen years ago he retired from business in the city, after accumulating considerable capital, and adopted a new pursuit,—for the successful prosecution of which his observant and active habits peculiarly fitted him,—that of Agriculture. Mr. Jackes took a leading part in the management of Agricultural Societies, both of the County and Township in which he resided. As late Warden of the County and an active Magistrate, the services he rendered society were of great value and importance, and the large number who followed his remains to their last resting place, consisting of men of all ranks, parties and creeds, forming a procession nearly a mile in length, fully testified that those services were not unappreciated.
