

Toronto Markets.

CANADIAN CHURCH PRESS OFFICE, Wednesday, July 11th, 1860.

A good deal of activity has prevailed in some departments of trade during the week, owing to the preparations for harvest which are now being made.

The weather of the week has been very favorable to fall and spring crops, and the various accounts from the country at hand lead to the conviction that we are about to be blessed with an abundant harvest.

In produce, little has been done, farmers being too busy in the hay-field to come to market.

Flour.—There is no change to observe in the flour market. The small stock on hand, and the probability of a small supply until after harvest, restricts operations, and there has been no pressure to sell.

OATMEAL can be had at $4 00 per barrel, but holders demand $4 10 to $4 25 per barrel.

WHEAT is hardly so active as at the date of our last. The small quantity brought in by farmers has been insufficient to interest buyers, and neither the supply nor demand is so good as during the season.

POTATOES.—Old potatoes are plentiful and dull of sale at 20c to 25c per bushel.

Fruit.—Farmers fruit is beginning to offer freely at 5c to 7c per quart for cherries; 5c to 6c for red currants, and 8c for black, and 8c to 10c for gooseberries per quart.

BUTTER.—Although plentiful, fresh butter commands slightly better rates, 12 1/2 to 15c is a common rate, and choice lots have been sold from the waggon at higher figures, say 16c and 17c.

Eggs are scarce and are retailed at 14c to 15c by wholesale they would bring 12c to 13c per doz. if fresh.
