

"THE GREATEST POSSIBLE GOOD TO THE GREATEST POSSIBLE NUMBER."

VOL. V. No. 30

BEETON, ONT., OCT. 16, 1889.

WHOLE No. 238

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

We have completed arrangements with the publishers of the Farm Journal, a first class agricultural monthly, published in Philadelphia, whereby we can make the following unparalleled offers:

1—To every present subscriber who will get us a new subscription, for one year at $1.00, we will send the Farm Journal FREE, and the new subscriber, whose name is sent will also receive it free of all charge.

2—For 30 cents, we will send the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL AND POUDTRY WEEKLY, the balance of the year (1889) and the Farm Journal right through 1890.

This splendid offer enables all our subscribers to get for themselves an excellent agricultural paper, absolutely free of charge and we hope to see hundreds of our patrons take advantage of it. Please lose no time in attending to this matter. All subscriptions received with $1.00, will be entered as expiring January 1st 1891, so that the new subscribers will receive each paper 15 months. Come now, and help us.

EDITORIAL

NOVA Scotia seems to be well supplied with honey this year. From a customer there we are advised that on the 8th inst, bees were carrying in honey and pollen just as rapidly as in the month of July. Red clover is still in bloom and many other honey producing flowers. The leaves on the trees are still quite green.

Where shall we hold the next National Bee-Keepers' Convention.

SHALL IT BE CHANGED FROM BRANTFORD ONTARIO, TO BUFFALO, N. Y.

THE above are the headings that appear on advance proof sheet, forwarded us by the good people who publish Gleanings. What follows we shall give in full, so that the readers of the CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL may understand the whole matter fully.

The CANADIAN BEE JOURNAL for Sept. 18th contained an editorial touching upon a point that I had been thinking about for some time. It reads as follows:

While at Buffalo we lost no opportunity of inviting our American friends to be with us at the coming International convention, to be held at Brantford in December, and we were encouraged by many promises to be present. We hope that our Canadian bee-keepers will not forget to be present, and give our visitors such a welcome as they deserve. By the way, would it not be mere justice to place the holding of the next convention at Buffalo? The bee-keepers there would like it, and it will give Canadians a good chance of again being
