BISHOP'S COLLEGE,
LENNOXVILLE.
JUNIOR DEPARTMENT AND GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

RECTOR, } The Rev. J. W. Williams, M.A., Pembroke Coll., Oxford, (late Classical Master in Leamington Coll., Eng.
ASSISTANT } A. Capel, Esq., C.C.C., Cambridge,
MASTERS. } J. S. Proctor, Esq., St. John's College, Cambridge.

IN this Department pupils are prepared, at the option of parents, either for entering the University, or for Commercial life.

English Grammar and Composition, the French Language, Writing and Arithmetic are carefully taught throughout the School.

Those boys who are preparing for commercial life may omit the study of Greek and Latin, and devote the time thus gained to their further advancement in Arithmetic and Writing, under the supervision of a Master who is always disengaged during such hours to give them special attention.

Religious Instruction is given by the Rector to all pupils who are members of the Church of England.

Elocution is carefully taught in all the classes. Instruction in Vocal Music is imparted to those pupils whose parents may desire it.

CHEAP TUNE AND CHANT BOOKS.

THE Music Committee of the Synod of the Diocese of Toronto, have agreed upon a book containing 60 Psalm Tunes, 60 Chants, and a few Glorias and Responses. They are prepared to publish it, so soon as they have ascertained that it will meet with an adequate share of public support.

If an edition of 2,500 can be sold, they can publish it at 25 cents, if of 1000 only, at 40 cents. Clergymen and others, desirous of obtaining it, are requested to inform the Rev. Dr. Beaver, Toronto, chairman of the committee, what number of copies they desire, if it can be published for 25 cents, and what number if for 40 cents ready money.

If the publication takes place, the price will be raised to non-subscribers.

"Two or three times I have been attacked by BRONCHITIS so as to make me fear that I should be compelled to desist from ministerial labor, through disorder of the Throat. But from a moderate use of the "Troches" I now find myself able to preach nightly, for weeks together, without the slightest inconvenience."
