

COMPANION TO THE REVISED OLD TESTAMENT,

Showing the leading changes made by the Revisers, and the reasons for making them.

By TALBOT W. CHAMBERS, D.D.

A member of Old Testament Revision Committee.

12mo, cloth, $1.20.

Dr. Chalmers was a most valued member of the Revision Committee, and is, besides, a ripe and accomplished scholar and Biblical critic. Moreover, he is thoroughly trustworthy, conscientious, and painstaking in all his literary work.

"The Companion to the Revised Old Testament" will discuss the need of a revision, and the method of making it; then consider the original text of the Old Testament and follow this with a mention of the changes made, and the reasons for making them, from Genesis to Malachi, concluding with a list of the Old Testament Revisers, British and American, and their Bibliography.

The work will be timely and welcome to all who purchase and desire to understand the merits of the Old Testament Revision.

The Sunday-School Blackboard.

Our Paper Blackboard is the best and cheapest Sunday-School Help of its kind in America.

We give below an exact fac-simile of the Sunday-School Blackboard, but reduced in size, and accompany the illustration with explanations as they appear in the Key. With this Key at hand, any one can use the Blackboard, and make a success of it.

(Blackboard and Key for July 5, 1885.)

Jeroboam had been an industrious, keen-eyed officer of Solomon. The latter became enraged at Jeroboam's prospects, as announced by the prophet Ahijah. Rehoboam was a spoiled boy, raised in royal luxury, and over-indulged in everything. As king, he attempted tyranny instead of kindness, and by it alienated the people. That spirit, to this day, repels friendship and invites opposition.

What are these two hands doing? Fulfilling prophecy. Recall Ahijah's rending of Jeroboam's new garment (1 Kings 11:30, 31).

Two special things on the Board: (1) Evil counsel given Rehoboam's young men, resulting in ruin; (2) Good counsel given by the old men, bringing prosperity.
