OUR STRODICAL SOBERES AND THEIR AGGREGATE RESULTS.

While the circle of influence exerted by our Church in Canada, is daily widening we rejoice to believe that the people who compose our congregations, are taking a heartier interest in the support of our various Synodical Schemes. Apart from local efforts for church and manse erection, and Presbyterial Home Mission Schemes, the Synod maintains various Schemes designed to advance the cause of religion and of the gospel, and to promote the efficiency of the Church as an instrument for good.

The sums raised for these efforts now reach a respectable amount, as the ensuing abstract which we have prepared from authentic sources abundantly proves, but even this aggregate is we trust, only a token and harbinger of better things to coneof that happy state of a church, wo on her people give freely to the cause of Christ, 'as God had prospered them' setting apart on the first day of the week, with a cheerful scriptural systematic beneficence.

---- Several Preshyteries we believe, maintain local Home Missions besides. That of Toronto raises, we know, large sums annually for its own Mission.

While as members of the Church we regard this statement as of an encouraging character, we rejoice as laymen to be able to add that the laity are rallying round the Home Mission Scheme in a manner that secures its success, if it be further faithfully prosecuted, and will make it an efficient agent in the great work of the thorough evangelization of our country. We have added up the statements in the Report of the Board, charged with the care of this important Scheme, and find that in addition to raising for various purposes, the foregoing sums, partial and incomplete subscriptions from 12 of the congregations of the churches visited in the three Easttern Presbyteries, amount to the respectable sum of $21,892 85,of which a considerable proportion has been paid, and to which large additions will vet be made. This too, we rejoice to regard as an earnest and an augury of good things to come. Let us take courage then, and each in our own sphere do what we can, and so a blessing will be added.

SYNOD MINUTES-SESSION 1960.

The Minutes of last Session of Synod have been printed and distributed. A parcel has been sent to each minister on the Roll, containing a copy for each member of his session, so far as the number of members, taken from the statistical returns, is ascertained. In many instances the number of members is not known, and this occasions trouble and difficulty. In
