

A good story is told by an English trade journal of a master builder, who, having heard that the men did not start work at the proper time, thought he would drop down about half-past six one morning and see. Going up of the yard he caught sight of a joiner standing smoking, with his kit not even opened. Simply asking his name, which he found to be Malcolm Campbell, he called him into the office, and handing him four days' pay, ordered him to leave at once. After seeing the man clear of the yard, he went up to the foreman and explained that he had made an example of Malcolm Campbell by paying him off for not starting at the proper hours. "Great Scott, sir!" ejaculated the foreman, "that chap was only lookin' for a job."
