

The Dominion Illustrated Monthly.

NOVEMBER, 1892.

Volume 1. No. 10

CONTENTS :

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |                                          |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|
| Sir Daniel Wilson.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Frontispiece.                            |
| The Late Sir Daniel Wilson, LL.D. ....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | George Stewart ..... 587          |
| A Strange Disappearance .....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | Isidore Ascher ..... 591          |
| Illustration : "The servant entered the room and handed me a telegram."                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |                                          |
| Canadian Poets in Miniature.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 600                                      |
| Illustrations : Bliss Carmen. Arch. Lampman. Geo. Martin. Chas. G. D. Roberts. John Reade. J. Hunter Duvar. Rev. A. G. Lockhart. Chas. Sangster. Rev. F. G. Scott. W. W. Campbell. Arthur Weir. W. D. Lighthall. Mrs. Frances J. Harrison. Mrs. S. A. Curzon. Miss A. M. Machar.                         |                                          |
| The Onondaga Berry Dance.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   | A. H. H. Heming ..... 604         |
| Illustrations : Blind Chief Gibson. The Onondaga Long House. The commencement of the Onondaga Berry Dance. The Female Dance. An Onondaga Brave. The Old Fellow.                                                                                                                                          |                                          |
| Cricket in Canada. III.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | G. G. S. Lindsey ..... 609        |
| Illustrations : Rev. T. D. Phillips. Gentlemen of Ireland Eleven. F. A. Kaiser. W. A. Henry. J. D. McBeath. John O'Brien. "Dan" Tobin. J. D. Hanlon. G. W. Jones. H. H. Harvey. F. C. Jones. W. J. Starr. C. St. C. Skinner. Jas. W. Thomas. Montreal C. C. Eleven, 1880. A. Browning. F. C. Stancliffe. |                                          |
| The Giant.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  | Samuel Mathewson Baylis ..... 619 |
| Brough's Daughter.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Kay Livingstone ..... 620         |
| Illustrations : "A friend of yours," she murmured at last. "Who is she?" "Who did it? Where did you get it?" said Meg, unsteadily.                                                                                                                                                                       |                                          |
| Lord Tennyson.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              | John Reade ..... 631              |
| The "Grace Darling".....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | 641                                      |
| Illustrations : Launch of the "Grace Darling." Capt. Geo. Tyler. Capt. Tyler and detachment of S. O. E. Naval Brigade in front of (temporary) lifeboat house.                                                                                                                                            |                                          |
| The Lifeboat.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | William T. James ..... 643        |
| A Summer in Canada. III.....                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | A. M. MacLeod ..... 644           |
| Illustrations : "While the canoe bore the young Seigneur and Miss Rushie far out on the river." "The portrait of a certain knightly ancestor."                                                                                                                                                           |                                          |

SUPPLEMENT :

LORD TENNYSON.

PUBLISHED BY

THE SABISTON LITHOGRAPHIC & PUBLISHING CO.,

4 King-St. East, Toronto.

Gazette Building, Montreal.

Subscription, $1.50 per Year.

Single Copies, 15 Cents.