GRIP

GRIP'S GALLERY OF NOTABLES.

MR. W. W. BUCHANAN.

THIS Notable is the Plumed Knight of Prohibition in Canada. He did not buy the cocked hat originally to indicate that office, but in obedience to the rules and regulations of the Royal Templars of Temperance, in which admirable Order he has long been one of the leaders. Besides filling the post of chief officer—Chancellor, we think it is called—he has all along edited the organ of the Order, a monthly called the Royal Templar. It is not a copy of this journal he has in hand in the picture, however, but The Templar, a new weekly advocate of prohibition and general reform, which is in no way connected with the Royal Templars, except so far as those gentlemen may see fit to subscribe. Mr. Buchanan is a man of great energy and fine journalistic ability. GRIP wishes him a prosperous career in his new venture, for which Canada ought to present an excellent field. The Templar, we may add, is published at a city called Hamilton.
