MAPITAL AND LABOUR.

: 8

labour.

Capital is simply the savings of previous labour and is useful in sustaining present and future

Capital, therefore, is produced by labour. Labour is simply toilsome work, which is generally performed under the direction of bosses or task-masters, and is rewarded by drafts on the fruits of previous labour or Capital. Labour, therefore, is sustained by Capital. Capital and Labour are inter-dependants. The custodians of Capital may abuse their position and grind the faces of labourers; and, labourers may form trades-unions and organize strikes; but, labour and capital will not quarrel any more than a man will quartel with his meals. Cheapside believes in paying labour handsomely, as no country can be prosperous without well paid labourers.

STARLING DISCOVERY. -0-AMISER WITH $10,000 FOUND IN A CAVE NEAR ST. CATHARINES.

The other day, says the Review, two young men started on a hunting expedition from St. Catharines and during the day wandered into the hollow between Jordan and Glen Elgin (otherwise known as Ball's Mills), villages in the township of Louth, which was formed by the action of the water of the Twenty Mile Creek. After going along this hollow and killing a number of rabbits, of which species of game there is quite an abundance in that neighborhood, they accidentally, in climbing up the hill side, rolled a fair-seized stone out of its place. Under the stone they discovered a small hole in the ground, and this attracted their attention, and led to an examination of the surroundings. A short distance further up the hillside, they discovered an entrance large enough for a human being to pass through. After a great deal of reductance, they finally summoned up enough courage to enter the cave, and, with the assistance of a light, they commenced to explore the interior, which they found divided into well-shaped apart-Pollards, U.C bags, City bags, Oatmeal, ments. Passing through two of them, which were about ten feet square, they entered the third and last one, where they found seated by the side of a chest of ordinary size a man probably forty-five years of age, whose face was completely covered Wheat. with hair. On noticing the intruders, he imme-diately selzed the chest and retreated to the most extreme corner of the room, uttering groans of an unearthly description. This for a short time frightened the boys, but being intent on seeing the contents of the chest, they, after some trouble wrested it from him, and opening it, discovered it filled with silver and copper coins, amounting to about $10,000, as near as they could tell by the size of the bulk. He seized them with the grip of a lion by the back of the neck and marched them out of the room. During all this time he had not uttered a word that could be made out, as he had evidently lost his speech. No one in the Oats, reighborhood knows anything about his former history. and, in fact, never knew that such a person Peas Buckwheat. was in the vicinity, although it has been known to almost every man, woman and child in those parts that there was a cave in the vicinity, but no one has ever ventured into it. Residents in the neighborhood, however, have often seen the man and believing him to be wild, have shuned him. He is the terror of the young folks, who always give him a wide berth. He is fully armed, and would resist any intrusion. It is a mystery as how leese, each the old man managed to subsist in this dreary place, as he has never made his way to any of the houses or the people in the vicinity, but it is supposed that he obtained the means of subsistence by making midnight excursions into the adjoiaing sequence of having infringed the Independence of Parliament Act, and is seeking re-election. Mr. Vail, Minister of Militia, is opposed in Digby by Mr. Wade, cx-speaker of the Nova Scotian Legislature, previous to the confederation. Public meetings are held every night and there is a lively time of it. As usual both parties express themselves

SIR GARNET WOLESLEY .- Sir Garnet Wolesley, one of the rising officers of the British army, has an article in the December number of the Nineteenth Century on the military strength of France. That nation is, he thinks, a great military Power once more and in the course of his article he bints that should "proud" Germany seek to possess Holland, and thereby attempt "to rival us on sea," an alli-ance with France, Belgium, and Holland would be a sufficient safeguard. How changed are some opinions since 1870!

THE MANITOBA LEGISLATURE opened on Thursday with the customary salute and guard of honour for the Lieut. Oovernor. In the speech from the Throne Mr. Cauchon acknowledged the universal sympathy felt respecting the death of Madame Cauchon; said the abundant harvest has caused the want of railway communication to be more keenly felt, and hoped the visit of Lord Dufferin and two of his Ministers would have the effect of inducing the Dominion Parliament to devote earnest attention to this vital question. The expenditure of the Province is confined within the revenue.

THE WITNESS AND AYLMER CATHOLICS .- " An Ay merite" writes to us complaining of the unfair strictures of the Montreal Daily Witness upon the Catholics of Aylmer. Our correspondent trings the · Only religious" severely to task for its uncalled for insult and hopes that in future it will look nearer home for material on which to build false state ments. The Catholics of Aylmer are justly indig nant over the insult, though knowing the reputa-tion of the paper in question in point of veracity they might well afford to treat its remarks with contempt.-Ottawa Herald.

CATHOLIC CONCERT .- The concert held in Hopkins Music Hall, Whitby, Ontario, last week, in aid of the funds of the Catholic church, was well attended. The programme provided for the evening was an excellent one and was well carried out. All the performers excelled themselves, and especially was the playing on the plano of Misses Johnston and Paddon, well executed. The singing of Miss Spur-rill and Miss Minnie Hallett, and the acting and comic singing of Mr. Wm. Murphy, were deserved-ly applauded. The Oddfellows' Brass Band and Calverly's String Band gave their services during the evening and favored the audience with some choice selections. The gross receipts amounted to some $90.
