BRANCH 81 C.M.B.A. Address and Presentation to Brother Secretary.

To the Editor of THE TRUE WITNESS.

DEAR SIR:—By publishing the enclosed you will do me a great service. I am a member of Branch 81 C.M.B.A. and I have written you a letter which I have enclosed in this envelope. I am sure you will be glad to receive it.

Respectfully yours, M. J. S. SMITH.

The members of Branch 81 C.M.B.A. Montreal, assembled at their home on Sunday, Feb. 17, 1891, for the special request of the President, Bro. James O'Farrell, for the purpose of electing a new link to the chain of communication by which they are in touch with the duties of religion—paid to the same effect.

The session of the day was devoted to the presentation of the report of the committee on the subject of the election of a new link to the chain of communication by which they are in touch with the duties of religion—paid to the same effect.

W. J. S. SMITH, Secretary, Branch 81 C.M.B.A., Montreal.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst. in relation to the election of a new link to the chain of communication by which they are in touch with the duties of religion—paid to the same effect.

A Pointed Lesson for Farmers.

Mr. J. A. Chelmsford gives under his own name and in the form of a pointed lesson to his agricultural compatriots which every farmer in Canada should bear in mind. He had a great success in raising a fine crop of wheat on a long piece of land, with a manure of agricultural implements and the lack of business. The gentleman in question had a fine crop of wheat on a long piece of land, with a manure of agricultural implements and the lack of business.

Washington an Irishman.

It is a well-known fact that Washington was an Irishman. His father, George Washington Parke Custis, was an Irishman. His mother, Mary Ball Washington, was also an Irishman. They were both of the Ball family, who were of the Ball family, who were of the Ball family.

Liberty Does Not Mean License.

The great radical error on the subject of liberty is the confounding it with independence of authority. But man is a dependent being. He depends on the Creator for existence, and is still dependent on Him for continued existence. He is dependent on his fellow man in a thousand ways. He depends on sustaining sympathy in distress. The most dependent of all the animals in infancy is dependent on its equally dependent parent.

General Sherman Dead.

New York, February 11.—General Sherman died at 100 to-day. The General passed away without speaking to any of the members of his family, who were gathered about him. There was just a slight quiver of the hand and the old soldier said "I am here" and he was gone. General Sherman died at 100 to-day. The General passed away without speaking to any of the members of his family, who were gathered about him.
