THE ROSARY.

"Bring hither to me my Bosary!"
Cried the lovely Lady Anne,
As by the sick bed where he lay,
For her dear lord she began
To count her blessed beads one by one, As the hours of hope and life sped on

"Jesus save us!" cried a knight In the pagan forest lost.

No star to lend its guardian light,
No mereing, track or post.

"Jesus save us!" and forth he drew
The Rosary, salvation's clue.

Brain sore and feverish with care
In Armagh's cloister deep.
The scholar knelt all night in prayer;
Thought would not let him sleep,
Till the problems, all entangled, he Unwound them on his Rosary.

When fiercely broke the Atlantic sea Around the quivering bark, And the scowling crew with mutiny Made the scowling sky more dark, Columbus calmy tells his beads, Nor mutiny nor tempest heeds.

Oh! scorn not then the pious poor,
Nor the Rosary they tell;
Ere the Faust was born nor men grow proud
To read by the light of hell,
In noble and in humble hands In noble and in humble names
Beads guided souls to heaven in bands.

Resolutions Passed by the Western Press Association.

The following resolutious were unanimously passed by the association.

Moved by T. H. Preston, seconded by John K. McInnis, that the courtesies that have been extended to the members of the Western Canadian Press Association and the ladies accompanying the party by the Mayor, Ald. Munn, and council and citizens of Victoria have been of such a character as to bring forth our most heartfelt thanks. From the moment of our arrival in the city we have had nothing but the greatest kindnesses and the unobtrusive manner in which they have been evinced has been to us association we will carry away with us most pleasant recollections of Victoria and its people. We are pleased to bear witness to the enterprise that marks this city and cannot fail to give it the position in the commercial world that it deserves. To Messrs. Ellis (of the Victoria Colonist) and Templeman (of the Times) we wish to tender especial thanks. These gentlemen have been never-failing in their efforts to provide for our comfort and entertainment while within the gates of this hospitable city. To the Esquimalt & Nanaimo railroad through whose courtesy we were extended the privileges of transportation over that line of railway, we desire to express our thanks. To Mr. Higgins, mauager of the street railroad, we have pleasure in tendering the thanks of the association on behalf of its members and the ladies accompanying them for the kind offer of tree transportation, and which was taken advantage of in such a large measure.

that the association is deeply sensible of shape of a double cross. their obligation to the company for the privileges so generously extended and so effectively carried out.

Mr. Preston made an eloquent speech in offering his resolution. He referred in one place to the province as a garden of Eden where the son of man wanders about enjoying plenty and protected by an umbrella. This remark caused no end of laughter. The speaker said that he and his party would return to the east better Canadians. The east and west were drawing closer every day. No one doubted the great future of the Dominion. Mr. McInnis seconded the resolution, and it was passed by the unanimous vote, as were also the follow-

Moved by W. H. Daubney, seconded by R. H. Spedding, that as members of the Western Canadian Press Association at the time were some 250 novices in we record our keen appreciation of the generous hospitality extended us by Mayor Cope, the city corporation, the local publishers and citizens of Vancouver. We came distrusting the tales of marvellous growth that had reached us from the coast; we return convinced that scant justice had been done the Aladdin City of the Pacific coast, and that in the mines, fish and lumber which support it there is the bed-rock of prosperity, and that as the Pacific intrepot to the great Dominion of which we all feel proud it is certain to become of constantly increasing greatness as a seaport. That its wonderful harbor may ever find shelter for a vast number of ocean palaces and foremasted store-houses and bring wealth from far-distant climes is our sincere wish. The association would also add to its thanks herewith to the Westminister & Vancouver Tramway Co. and to Mr. Oppenheimer, its president and manager, for the courtesy extended in carrying the party free of charge to and from Westminister.

Moved by Mr. McInnes, seconded by Mr. Weidman, that the thanks of the members of this association are due in an especial manner to Mayor Curtis, the council and citizens of New Westminister for their generous hospitality and for kindnesses innumerable and unstinted. We were charmed with the garden city of the Fraser valley, with the sail on the noble river that laves its shores, and with its many handsome private and public buildings. We deeply regret that circumstances prevented a more prolonged stay and a fuller conception of he great natural resources of the district. We assure the citizens that any disappointment at the curtailment of their reception programme is not more keenly felt by them than by us. Many of our party, as stated by the president in his telegram to Mayor Curtis, were very much fatigued owing to the late hour at which they returned from New not westminister to Vancouver, but there her.

would nevertheless have been a large representation at New Westminister on Tuesday morning but for the fact that

Mr. Oppenheimer informed our officers that train arrangements could not be made that would enable us to again visit New Westminister and at the same time meet our Victoria engagements.

Moved by R. L. Richardson, seconded by Mr. Rogers, that as members of the Western Canadian Press Association we are deeply sensible of our indebtedness to Mr. W. C. Van Horne, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway Company, in previding our party free transporta-tion irom Winnipeg to the Pacific coast and return over the great railroad of which he is the distinguished head. The arrangements for our comfort and conveyance have throughout been most ample, and the officials of the company, particularly Mr. William White, general superintendent of the Western division, have been unwearying in their efforts to make our trip a memorable one to us. From Winnipeg to the gate-way of the Rockies, and from Calgary to Vancouver, new scenes of delight and wonderment have been presented, but no marvel has been greater than the extent of Canada's heritage and the great part which the Canadian Pacific railroad is playing in its development It is our sincere desire that the company may long continue its marvellous career and that its efforts will in the future as in the past result in lasting enefits to the country as a whole.

Moved by Mr. Perry seconded by Mr. Weidman, that we give expression to our appreciation of the generosity of the Canadian Pacific Navigation Co. in pro viding us with free transportation on their steamers, and for other courtesies calculated to add to the enjoyment of the trip to the Pacific coast.

A number of technical subjects, inter esting only to the craft, were taken up and discussed, These with some routing most pleasing. Individually and as an matters occupied the association unti noon, when the meeting adjourned.

Moved by Mr. Lang, Moose Jaw, sec onded by Mr. McDonald, Carberry.

That the thanks of this association b tendered to the Boord of Trade of the city of Victoria for their kindness in placing at the disposal of the association rooms in their handsone new block.

Mr. Preston made a speech, in which he greatly praised the Victoria and coast papers.

The fire had made considerable progress when discovered by the sisters, but they made great efforts to extinguish it. Their efforts were unavailing however, the fire spreading rapidly to the main portion of the building. A message was at once sent to the city for assistance, but owing to the distance it was nearly an hour after the fire started before the firemen arrived, and by that time the whole main portion of the building was threated with destruction. The Mother house is the chief house of the Congregational nuns, one of the leading orders in America, and is the establishment at the time were some 250 novices in addition to the sisters and servants when it was seen that the fire made such great headway all inmates made hasty departure carrying all the effects they could with them. In the convent school which is only a short distance from the Mother house, were some 230 pupils and as it was feared, this building might also take fire, the pupils were got out in safety. In the mean time the fire on the Mother house had made such great headway that the efforts of the firemen were confined to keeping it away from the convent school, which they succeeded in doing. The Mother house is completely in ruins. The convent school, which from its historic associations is the most prized portion of the establishment has been saved. The loss will be very heavy. An anecdote is related of the late Father Boyle which is worthy of repetition. One evening he met a man whose appearance gave evidence that the temperance pledge administered to him by the good Father had not been observed. Approaching the latter, the half-intoxicated man said: "Father Boyle, I am a Catholic to the backbone and ever ready to stand up for the church." "My good sir," said the priest, "the church does not want you to stand up, but to kneel for her." The astonished man says he learned a lesson which caused him to bend the knee more willingly than before. His example might be imitated by many who are always ready to fight for the courch but not willing to suffer humiliation for True Tales From Life.

At one time Mgr. Affre, archbishop of Paris was travelling in a diligence. He had a number of fellow-passengers to whom he was not known, although one of them, a commercial traveller discovered him to be an ecclesiastic from the episcorpal cross hanging beneath his cloak.

The conversation was somewhat general, and the bagman, seeing an oppor-tunity for what he deemed innocent raillery, said:

"Monsieur, you can tell us the difference between a bishop and an ass? You are evidently a learned man, and can certainly inform us." After a moment's thought the prelate answered, with perfect candor and good

"Well, it doesn't seem such a difficult question, perhaps, and yet I really cannot explain it."

"No? Then I will enlighten you, continued the traveller, who by this time had drawn the attention of the crowd. 'It is because an ass bears a cross upon his back and the bishop on his breast."

This sally was received with roars of laughter, nobody as yet suspecting the religious character of its object.

"And now," began the archbishop, still with perfect affability, "can you tell me the difference between a commercial traveller and an ass?" The drummer scratched his head, and finally replied he couldn't.

"Neither can I," mildly commented His Grace.

The traveller got out at the next station.

MORALS IN PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Prof. Goggin Pays a High Compliment to our Catholic Educational System.

The Edmonton Bulletin, of May 22nd contains the following:

Prof. Goggin's lecture on the above subject in Robertson's hall on Thursday evening last was well attended. Mayor McCauley, chairman of the board of school trustees, was chairman, and introduced the lecturer of the evening in a neat and complimentary speech.
In the course of his lecture, Prof. Goggin said that he laid great stress on the teaching of cleanlinss and good manners generally, going so far as to say that he would prefer a child to leave school poorly educated but with good manners rather then highly educated with bad manners. He took occasion to say that his experience led him to the conclusion that this branch of education was generally better taught in Catholic than in Protestant schools.

Evidently Prof. Goggin is a shrewd observer and clearly appreciates the fact that uncouth and unmannerly conduct in a school boy or girl is almost as unbearable as positive illiteracy. Withcut good manners it is impossible to conceive that an education is complete.

How Queen Victoria Looks.

The New York Sun correspondent says of Queen Victoria's appearance, at the opening of the Imperial Institute: The prevailing teeling was one of dissappointment. The Queen did not look queenly enough to satisfy common critics, who, having been accustomed by the illustrated payers and the coiners at the mint to the idea of a tall, majestic woman, were keenly chagrined to find that the actual Queen of Great Britain and Ireland, etc., Empress of India, etc., was a very small, wrinkled old lady, with no physical marks of distinction whatsoever, and during the greater part of the route huddled up in a corner of the big carriage in a curious and decidedly undignified manner.
