

Article XI

1. This Agreement shall remain in force for five years following its entry into force and shall be renewable by tacit agreement for periods of five years.

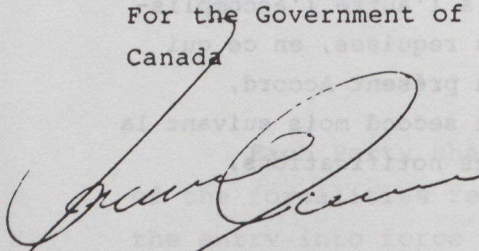

2. At the end of the first period of five years, the Agreement may be terminated at any time by giving six months notice.

3. The termination of the Cultural Agreement of November 17, 1965, shall terminate this Agreement.

4. Projects under way at the time of termination shall continue to benefit from the provisions of the present Agreement until such time as they have been completed.
