"This Quad meeting will play an important role in achieving a successful outcome of the MTN, coming as it does in the final phase of intensive negotiations in Geneva," Mr. Crosbie said. "I am therefore delighted that Arthur Dunkel, the GATT Director General, has accepted my invitation to come to Canada."

Prior to going to St. John's for a pre-Quad meeting with the four Trade Ministers, Mr. Dunkel will meet with federal Ministers and address the Conference Board of Canada's Business Outlook '91 meeting in Toronto, Oct. 11.
