Hales,

On motion of Mr. Diefenbaker, seconded by Mr. Churchill, it was resolved, —That the Standing Committees of this House be severally empowered to examine and inquire into all such matters and things as may be referred to them by the House; and to report from time to time their observations and opinions thereon, with power to send for persons, papers and records.

On motion of Mr. Ricard, seconded by Mr. Winkler, it was ordered,—That Messages be sent to the Senate to acquaint Their Honours that this House will unite with them in the formation of Joint Committees of both Houses on the subject of Printing of Parliament, the direction of the Library of Parliament, and the direction of the Parliamentary Restaurant; and that the Members to serve on each of the Committees, on the part of this House, will be as contained in the First Report of the Special Committee presented this day.

The House resumed consideration in Committee of the Whole of a certain proposed resolution to amend the Farm Credit Act.

(In the Committee)

The following resolution was adopted:

Resolved,—That it is expedient to introduce a measure to amend the Farm Credit Act to increase the capital of the Farm Credit Corporation from twelve million dollars to sixteen million dollars so as to increase the lending capacity of the Corporation from three hundred million dollars to four hundred million dollars; and to provide further for certain changes in connection with the administration of the Act.

Resolution to be reported.

The said resolution was reported and concurred in.
