

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

The section to be repealed reads as follows:

"32. Whenever under any Act of the Parliament of Canada, provision is made by which any jurisdiction, power or authority is conferred upon the Court of Appeal for Ontario, such jurisdiction, power or authority, shall be deemed to be conferred upon the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Ontario.

2. Whenever under any Act of the Parliament of Canada provision is made by which any jurisdiction, power or authority is conferred upon the High Court of Justice for Ontario, or any judge thereof, such jurisdiction, power or authority, shall be deemed to be conferred upon the High Court Division of the Supreme Court of Ontario or a judge of that Division sitting in court or in chambers."

By section 2 of chapter 24 of the statutes of Ontario, 1931, it is provided that the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Ontario shall hereafter be known as the "Court of Appeal for Ontario," and the High Court Division shall hereafter be known as "the High Court of Justice for Ontario". These provisions will come into force on the 1st September, 1931, so that after that date the provisions of section 32 of the Interpretation Act will no longer be necessary.
