

Mr. SPEAKER: When shall the bill be read a third time?

Some hon. MEMBERS: Next sitting.

Mr. SPEAKER: It is for the house to say. Standing order 77 says:

All amendments made in committee are reported by the chairman to the house, which shall receive the same forthwith. After report the bill is open to debate and amendment, before it is ordered for a third reading. But when a bill is reported without amendment, it is forthwith ordered to be read a third time at such time as may be appointed by the house.

Motion agreed to, on division, and bill read the third time.

Mr. CASSELMAN moved that the bill do now pass and that the title be as on the order paper.

Mr. GARDINER: Mr. Speaker, we did not hear you say that the bill was read a third time.

Mr. SPEAKER: Oh yes, I put the question quite audibly. It is now moved that the bill do now pass and the title be as on the order paper. Is there objection to that?

Mr. GARDINER: Certainly.

Mr. SPEAKER: Those in favour of the motion will kindly rise.

Mr. BOURASSA: I rise to a point of order, Mr. Speaker. We are in full house and a registered vote should be taken upon this motion. The vote cannot be taken by counting heads.

Mr. SPEAKER: I asked that the names be called as usual. Call in the members.

The house divided on the motion (Mr. Casselman) which was agreed to on the following division:
