

1763, JULY.

panied by
Isle du
alarm was
ambush;
stripped
half of the
else; and,
the party
the thir-
reach, to
landing,
e. Cap-
th eleven
prisoners,
ought that
of Gorell
uld resist
mitted to

l by the
reen Bay
at liberty,
still re-
ey would
Montreal.
nd being
of much
he point.
corted by
oche, and

1763, Aug.] ARRIVAL AT MONTREAL.

381

reaching, without interruption, the portage of the river Ottawa, descended to Montreal, where they all arrived in safety, on the thirteenth of August.¹ Except the garrison of Detroit, not a British soldier now remained in the region of the lakes.

¹ Gorell, Journal, MS.

END OF VOL. I.