hedging sales. Crop news was excellent.

Provisions hardened in price notwithstanding a decline in quotations for hogs.

It was said the demand from Great Britain for meats had improved. London's continued observance colidays left this market somewhat J. P. Bickell & Co., Standard Bank Building, Toronto, report the following fluctuations on the Chicago Board of Trade:

holidays left this market somewhat in doubt regarding latest market operations at that centre, but some private purchases of our standard shares for that account were reported.

Domestic news was favorable in the main, including more equipment orders, advices of better business prospects in the west and southwest, and increased respect townses. Crop reports howthe west and southwest, and increased granger tonnage. Crop reports, however, were again conflicting.

Bonds showed some irregularity, due to selling of certain speculative issues.

Day Owing to the Holiday.

Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards yesterday were 191 cars all told since Friday, comprising 2415 cattle, 1304 hogs, 165 sheep and lambs, 127 calves and 1178 horses, the latter being fed in transit for the British army, being shipped from the United States.

The percentage of choice, well-finished stall cattle was large.

A few outside buyers were on the market, but their orders were not as large as usual.
