

WAKEN MY SOUL

Waken My Soul.

WAKEN my soul with a song of life, O Love.
The sacred winds blow their fragrant breath
 over my forehead;
I breathe the eternal air; I exult in increasing life.
Flowers of spring are blooming within me;
Odors of summer pervade me;
Fruits of autumn my divine Lover pours into my heart.
In storm of winter he braces my being for stronger achievement.
I am firm-knit by the struggle; I can endure.
Fill me with life, O Love.
