

held on each Tuesday evening, commencing punctually at 8 P.M. and closing at 10 P.M.

ARTICLE XIII.

Should any question arise in reference to any public performance proposed to be given by the Society in accordance with Art. I. of the Constitution, then such performance shall not take place unless a seven-tenths majority of the Members of the Society shall be willing to join in same, and unless such majority shall, in the opinion of the Conductor, the Leader and the President, be sufficient as regards instruments to render the music, which may be selected for the said performance, in an efficient and becoming manner

ARTICLE XIV.

AMENDMENT.

The Constitution and By-Laws shall not be amended except at a General Meeting duly convened for that purpose by a three-fourths vote of the Members present thereat, after notice of such intended amendment shall have been handed to the Secretary in writing and read by him at two weekly Meetings previous to action being taken thereon.

