GEORGE TOWNSHEND, Brigadier.

Articles of Capitulation demanded by M. de Ramsay, commander for his most Christian majesty in the higher and lower town of Quebec, knight of the military order of St. Louis, from his excellency the general commanding his Britannic majesty's forces.

Article I. M. de Ramsay demands the honours of war for his garrison, and that it shall be conducted back to the army in safety by the shortest road, with their arms, baggage, six pieces of brass cannon, two mortars or howitzers, and twelve rounds.—The garrison of the town, composed of land forces, marines, and sailors, shall march out with their arms and baggage, drums beating, lighted matches, with two pieces of cannon, and twelve rounds, and shall be embarked as conveniently as possible, in order to be landed at the first port in France.

Art. II. That the inhabitants shall be maintained in the possession of their houses, goods, effects, and privileges.—Granted, provided they lay down their arms.

Art. III. That the said inhabitants shall not be molested on account of their having borne arms for the defence of the town, as they were forced to it, and as it is customary for the inhabitants of the colonies of both crowns to serve as militia.—Granted.

Art. IV. That the effects belonging to the absent officers or inhabitants, shall not be touched.—Granted.

Art. V. That the said inhabitants shall not be removed, nor ob-
