

A VEST SALE WORTH WHILE

BY actual count we have four hundred of the finest Fancy Vests for fall and winter wear ever shown in Toronto, but the stock is too heavy, so we have decided to cut it down by reducing the prices of all to one—and that will be three-dollars and sixty-nine cents each—for your choice of any Vest in the store. The cheapest Vest in the lot is $4.00, and the best $6.50, and by far the larger number is among the $5.00 and $6.50 ones. We won't say just how long this offer is good for, but take it from us, that it is a VEST SNAP you won't see again in many moons—SO BUY NOW.

We can fit the small, medium or the big man with ease, and the variety of patterns will make it easy choosing. A fancy vest will make an old suit look like new, and put a tone on sombre colors that will make a man look smart and snappy. Remember the price $3.69 each and the place.

GEARY FOR LEGISLATURE AND HOCKEN FOR MAYOR?

Rumor Says They Will So Run—Thomas Foster For Board of Control.

Municipal election gossip is not as prolific as it might be at this time of the year, owing to the fact that the approaching provincial elections are attracting much of the attention. However, rumors are circulating. It is said that Mayor Geary may run for a seat in the legislature and that if he announces his intention so to do, Controller Hocken will go after the majority. If Mayor Geary does become an M.P., there will undoubtedly be several well known men after the seat in the city council chamber. Controller Hocken will probably be as likely a candidate for the honor as can be put forth, that is if he is willing to take the risk.

Thomas Foster, controller, announced last night that he had decided to run again for a seat on the board of control. His report will be made in the economy. He considers that the present incumbents of responsibility at the hall are the men to curb wasteful expenditures.

Dr. Sheard, late medical health officer, is spoken of as a possible candidate for mayor. The doctor's recent political activities, when he supported A. E. Kemp in the Dominion elections, are thought to indicate that he is anxious to get back into the limelight. Ald. McCarthy and Ald. Chisholm are spoken of as possible candidates for the board of control. Neither has as yet declared his intentions.

E. J. Lennox, the architect, who is suing the city for money alleged to be due him for the plans of the city hall, is said to have threatened to run for the board of control. It is said that he does not fancy the city hall property department in regard to the case which is being tried and that he is anxious to get into a position to "control" the department.

J. G. O'Donoghue, the labor lawyer, has announced that he will be a candidate for the board of control.

RAPPED TARIFF REFORMERS

N. W. Helme, M. P., Gives Personal Opinion That Issue is Dead.

Norval W. Helme, member of parliament for the Leamington, Ontario, constituency, and president of the chamber of commerce, was the speaker at the Empire Club's opening luncheon of the season at the St. Charles yesterday.

"You in Canada have not had to deal with the overvalued districts, such as exist in the British Isles, and the solving of the problem of the merged masses," he said. "The imperial government during the past six or seven years has been trying to grapple with this condition of affairs with the result that to-day we have old age pension, labor bureaus and other schemes in force that will tend to reduce poverty and destitution to a minimum."

Mr. Helme alluded to the refusal of the tariff reformers to accept the British to drop protection from their platform.

"That would not be tolerated in Canada," he said. "When the people say 'No,' it is the business of the government to take the hint and act accordingly."

Hon. L. Borden, Hon. Richard McBride, Hon. Walter Scott, Dr. C. C. Clarke, Col. Matheson, Sir Henry Pellett and F. B. Fetherstonhaugh were among the names submitted for election to life membership in the association. There was a large list of names submitted for membership, among them Mayor Geary.

TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

Nurses Receive Diplomas at Hospital for Sick Children.

The annual graduating exercises of the Training School for Nurses in connection with the Hospital for Sick Children, were held last evening.

The chairman, J. Ross Robertson, gave an interesting report of the work of the training school, making reference to the special features of the school: the preliminary or probationary course, the diet kitchen, the visiting nurse service, the nursery maid, the feeding of babies, the gymnasium, massage instruction, the alumnae, and a new department which will be opened next year and which will be a valuable adjunct, the instruction of nurses in occupations for the sick.

An excellent address, especially emphasizing the human side of a nurse's life work, was given by Miss Charlotte A. Aitkens of Detroit.

FRUIT-A-LIVES CURED HIM

FORCED TO LIVE ON STALE BREAD AND PORRIDGE.

AVONDALE, N.B., October 15. "I have been a great sufferer from indigestion for fifteen years. I was forced to deny myself all such hearty foods as bread, meat, butter, and eggs, and could not drink tea or coffee. For the past two years, I lived on porridge, stale bread, etc. I had treatment from two doctors, but with nearly every kind of medicine, but got worse.

"Finally I saw a testimonial of 'Fruit-a-lives' and concluded to give them a trial. I took nearly four boxes of 'Fruit-a-lives' and they have made me feel like a new man. I can eat all kinds of hearty food without suffering, and am no longer a patient."

LEMUEL A. W. BROWN. Many people look on "Fruit-a-lives" as a miraculous medicine. It has indeed performed what have seemed like miracles in the case of hundreds of cases of chronic indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation and biliousness.

"Fruit-a-lives" is the only medicine in the world made of fresh fruit juices and valuable tonics. 50¢ a box, 8 for $2.50, or trial size, 25¢. At all dealers or from Fruit-a-lives, Limited, Ottawa.

Carl Ahrens' Pictures

Looking back over the range of fine art, it is surprising how few painters there are who have devoted themselves to woodland scenery. The sea, with its constant changes of color, of sunlight and storm, and the gloom and mystery of its night, has had many devotees, but how few have found in the forest the fascination of the sea.

Yet when one comes to regard the essence of the field, there are not as many as great mysteries in the forest in addition to the faculty, the talent and the genius to translate their impressions into visible interpretation. His work, as shown in the public library galleries, is in fact a revelation.

Mr. Ahrens' work is not only of close knowledge, but of genuine artistic reproduction. He knows the woodlands in their every phase. No one can examine his "Impressions of the Road," No. 25, without being impressed by its fine perspective, its suggestion of a dropping road and its atmospheric effect. Yet these same qualities are revealed and even canvas hung on the wall, no matter under what environment they appear. Take as another instance, "The Mill," No. 14. Another example is "The Garden," No. 15. The work of Mr. Ahrens in detail. Already it has more reputation in artistic circles in Europe than it has in his homeland. But even the more cursory glance at his work will make it certain that Canada has produced an original artist who has had the genius and the constant application, and the study, and the ability to open up a new world of art to the eyes of the people.

A large and fashionable wedding took place in St. Basil's Church at half-past ten o'clock yesterday morning, when the marriage was solemnized of Miss Gertrude Foy, daughter of the late Mr. John Foy and Mrs. Foy, to Mr. Charles Stuart Murray, son of the late Mr. W. H. Murray. The church was beautifully decorated with pure white chrysanthemums, the sanctuary being decorated with palms, ferns and lilies, and the altar with roses and orchids. The Rev. Father Kelly performed the post-nuptial mass, and the wedding march was played by Mr. Brazil. During the singing of the register Mr. Barnaby Nelson sang "Ave Maria," "O Salutaris" and "Beatus." The tall graceful bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr. Frank Foy, wore an exquisite dress of white satin, with overdress of white hand embroidered lace, with bands of steel and pearls, the court train being caught at the shoulders with a crystal ornament, and having a true lovers' knot of raised shirred satin at one side. She wore a tulle veil caught at the side with lily of the valley and carried a lovely shower of lily of the valley and

St. Simon's Church was the scene of a wedding at 2.30 yesterday afternoon, when the marriage was solemnized of Miss Norah Durie Gwynne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Gwynne, and granddaughter of the late Mrs. Justice Gwynne of the supreme court of Canada, to Mr. Edward Pope, Montreal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pope, under secretary of state. The church was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, tall palms and ferns, and Rev. F. C. Varley performed the ceremony. The service was fully choral. Mr. Harrison presided at the organ with the choir singing "O Perfect Love" during the singing of the register. The bride, who is one of the prettiest and most popular girls, looked lovely in her wedding dress of white satin trimmed with Limerick lace, the long train and bodice being embroidered in pearls. Her long tulle veil, which was arranged as a cap, was wreathed with orange blossoms, and she carried an empire shawl of lily of the valley. Mr. Gwynne gave his daughter away. Miss Kathleen Crawford held the bride's train, and the bridesmaids were Miss Olive Fuchanan and Miss Gladys Carline Ottawa. They were crowned alike in yellow marquisette over yellow satin.

"Somebody really ought to get out the society votes," said the druggist. "I once tried to campaign among the four hundred, but I heard one woman tell her maid not to let any druggist poll up for her. She said, 'I quit.'—Washington Herald.
