every real business man. There are two ways of having it. You can either go to the high-priced "exclusive" office furniture stores and get half as much for what you have to pay them as we give you here, or come to us and get it all for half the price you'd pay them. Don't infer that our furniture is in any way inferior. Come in and see. You don't buy anything before you see it, and we'll just about turn anything inside out to convince you that we have the goods, and afterward if it shouldn't prove bang up and fully equal to your expectations -there's your money back for the asking.

Call us up (Main 852) for a "Macey" Filing Cabinet catalogue—it's worth your while, and you'll be mightily pleased with it.

another fair crowd. Of the seven boxing Wcodland A.C., Hamilton. bouts decided, five were very warmly con tested, that of Allan and Foster bringing movements against Cross were very comical. Ball was a disappointment against Carrol, and the spectators would have liked to see the contest continued.

The wrestling was very well contested, Mr. Crocker of the Central Y.M.C.A. referenceing very satisfactorily, as did Mr. Wright the boxing.

The first bout of the second night brought out W. Allan, Ottawa, and R.Foster, West End A. C., in the 115-1b class, The boyse opened up very carefully, both knowing the result pretty nearly meant the championship. This round was very even. In the second Allan went after his opponent, and was all over him in the early part of the round; but Foster came back fast, and finished the round strong. The third went the limit, and Allan won after a desperate round, but Foster deserves credit for his gameness. It was a great bout, and both contestants were applieded.

I Cuil Toronto Rowing Club, and J.

great bout, and both contestants were applianded.

J. Cull, Toronto Rowing Club, and J. McKenzie, Good Luck, furnished the second set-to at 125 lbs. This was a very clever bout, both boys being good boxers. It took an extra round to decide, and Cull, being the stronger, wore his opponent down, and the referee stopped the bout, giving Cull the decision. It was a close call for Cull, as McKenzie did wonderful work, considering that he allowed his opponent 10 pounds.

Again, the 125-lb. class brought out T. Daly, Good Luck, and R. Baker, Don Rowing Club. This went the limit, and Daly got the decision. Baker could not fathom Daly, who was there all the time with right and left swings and jabs, and had a big margin of points at the finish.

E. Smith, Toronto B. C., and R. Smith, Hamilton, were the contestants in the third of the 125-lb. class. The bout went the limit, altho both boys were very tired at the finish. E. Smith's leading and aggressive work in the third round earned him the decision, Both were cheered as they left the ring.

The fifth bout was in the lightweight class, between T. Holt, West End Club, and A. Tuckwell, T. R. C., a protege of B. Mallany. Holt won after two rounds and a half. Tuckwell is an aggressive boy, with a good right. He will be heard from later.
