

SIR KNIGHT JAMES OSBORNE RESCUED.

Reported on by the Sick Committee. His Death Claim a foregone conclusion.

A REPORT having been made, February 20th, 1896, to the Sick Committee, that Sir Knight James Osborne was very ill, the standing "sick committee" was instructed to wait upon him. They did so, and at the next meeting of the Lodge, reported that his disease was stated by his physician to be Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, and that he could not possibly recover; further, that he would only last a short time. Upon receiving this report the Lodge expected to pay his death claim, but were surprised a few months later when Sir Knight Osborne entered the Lodge room in apparent good health. His marvellous recovery is due entirely to Ryckman's Kootenay cure, as he discontinued the use of all other medicines when he commenced to take that remedy. He now works every day, is getting stronger and healthier steadily, and appears to be a long way from death as far as Bright's disease is concerned.

Signed, GEO. RIACH, Commander. EMORY L. HARTWELL, R.K. HUGH SYMINGTON, F.R., Barton Tent, No. 2.

Bright's Disease Yields to the New Ingredient.

Bright's Disease, that has hitherto been supposed incurable, fastened itself upon James Osborne so firmly that his case was considered hopeless by physicians, friends and himself. All the well marked symptoms of that dread disease were in evidence. The pains across the kidneys were so bad that for hours at a time he could not turn in bed. The skin became pallid, pasty, dry and hard. Digestion bad, heart palpitation, shortness of breath and prostrating weakness. So weak did he become that his strength was like that of a child. He could not walk. Appetite gone, nervous, very restless during sleep, awakening several times during the night with a desire to urinate, which at times was very painful. Under the eyes the skin was puffed out, legs and feet were swollen, and he felt the use of them were gone. Reduced to this deplorable, helpless condition 'tis no wonder that he exclaimed: "what is to become of me." To be brought from this condition to a state of health that enables him to take up his usual work is marvellous, and proves the far-reaching, curative powers of Kootenay. From head to foot he suffered, and from head to foot he was cured by Kootenay, and by it alone, as substantiated by the following: (COPY)

PROVINCE OF ONTARIO, I, JAMES OSBORNE, of the City of Hamilton, County of Wentworth, do solemnly declare that I reside at 62 Catherine St. South, in said City, and am employed as an engineer by the Sandford Manufacturing Co., Hamilton, Ont. Some time ago I was severely attacked with kidney trouble, and finally had to leave my employment. I was treated by Hamilton physicians who, after a consultation, diagnosed my case as "Bright's Disease of the Kidneys." Upon this information I gave up treatment with the doctors, and began the use of Ryckman's Kootenay Cure. I am now pleased to state that after taking four bottles of this wonderful medicine, I feel entirely like a new man. The swelling has left my body, my skin is a better color, and I am recovering my health and strength steadily. Knowing the benefits which I received from the medicine, it gives me pleasure to recommend it to anyone suffering from Bright's Disease or other kidney trouble. I am now working in my old position as engineer, and owe my present strength and improved condition to Kootenay Cure. And I make this solemn declaration, conscientiously believing it to be true, and knowing it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath, and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893. Declared before me at the City of Hamilton, in the County of Wentworth, this 10th day of Sept., A.D. 1896. (Signed) JAMES OSBORNE. T. F. LYALL, Notary Public.

If not obtainable of your dealer it will be forwarded, charges prepaid, on receipt of price, $1.50 per bottle, by addressing S. H. Ryckman Medicine Co., Hamilton, Ont. Sent for "Chart Book," mailed free.

GLUT IN THE MARKET.

Last year that was a big make of cheese in Canada, encouraged by the good prices fetched by the product during the previous season. The market is now glutted with large quantities, the total supply of which is estimated to be in excess of 100,000,000 pounds. THE TORONTO SUNDAY WORLD.

It is not for the Toronto Sunday World I should do so. Not only does it give me all the news of the day, after my morning's cutting, but it provides me with more excellent reading than I can get in any newspaper. The Toronto Sunday World is a paper of the highest quality, and it is a pleasure to read it every day.
