THE SOCIALISTS IN GERMAN

Herr Bebel Attacks the Emperor's Acts and Home Politics in the Reichstag.

CLAIMS SOCIALISM IS GROWING.

Secret Police Orders Not Issued for the Arrest of Leaders in Case of an Uprising.

Berlin, Dec. 15 .- During the debate on the estimates in the Reichstag to-day Herr Be-bel, the Socialist leader, criticized Emperor William's acts and home politics, saying it Claims Socialism is Growing.

Herr Bebel then denounced the anti-Socialistic police measures and referred to secret wolke orders, said to have been issued by Generals Bromsort Von Schellendorf and Von Halnake for the arrest of Socialist leaders in the event, seemingly, of revolutionary disturbances. He said such measures did not arrest the growth of Socialism which fundamentally differed from Anarchism. The Socialist leader afterwards discussed internal questions, his remarks causing clamorous protests from the Rightists.

Given a New Trial.

A new trial has been granted to Jame Coleman of Melancthon Township, Dufferli County. He was convicted of perjury a Brampton, before Judge McGibbon and jury. The grounds urged for a new trial were: That he had not been properly sworn when the alleged perjury was utter ed, and that Judge McGibbon had made comments on Coleman's evidence. The trial was granted on the latter ground. North Waterloo Again.

Reasons for appeal in the North Waterloo election case in which Dr. Lackier asks to have the judgment unseating him se aside, have been filed. It is claimed that the drinking done was but the customary social glass. The appeal will be heard during the second week of January.

Infant Found Dead in Bed.

The infant son of William McLeod, who lives at 30 Essex-street, was found dead in bed yesterday morning by his parents. The child was put to bed the night before, and was seemingly in the best of health, so the parents say. Dr. Fred Stair was called in, and refused to issue a death certificate until the authorities, were notified, owing to the body bearing a bruise upon the left temple and evidences that the child had not been properly nourished. The body was removed to Harry Ellis' undertaking establishment on College-street, where Dr. Stair conducted a post mortem, and found that death was caused by taxaemia, Mr. McLeod is employed as a laborer at the new Court House. The remains of the child will be interred to-day from its late home. Infant Found Dead in Bed.
