Success of the Anglo-Egyptian Troops in the Sudan.

Natal's Munificent Offer to the British Government—Otto, the Mad King of Bavaria, Dying.

200 DERVISES SLAIN

In an Engagement With the Anglo-Egyptian Force.

Abdour Camp, South of the Athara, Nubia, April 6.—A reconnaissance in force, with cavalry, artillery and two Egyptian battalions, brought the dervishes to bay. The fighting lasted from nine until half-past ten. The British loss was six killed and ten wounded. Capt. W. H. Perse, of the Second Dragoon Guards, was wounded slightly.

The dervishes lost about 200. The reconnaissance is regarded as a great success, its chief feature being the admirable behavior of the Egyptian cavalry, and the valuable services of the Maxim. Mahmoud's gun fire was ineffective.

Major-General Hunter commanded the Anglo-Egyptian force in the engagement.

THE G. O. M.

Renewed Anxiety Regarding Mr. Gladstone's Health.

London, April 6.—Renewed anxiety is expressed today regarding the health of Mr. Gladstone.

NATAL'S MUNIFICENT OFFER.

London, April 6.—The ministry of the British colony of Natal has cabled to Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, offering to supply gratis 12,000 tons of coal annually to British warships calling at Durban, and to afford them all possible facilities in other ways. Mr. Chamberlain has replied to the message, accepting the gift, and warmly thanking the colonists.

BAVARIA'S MAD KING DYING.

Munich, April 6.—The condition of the insane King Otto of Bavaria has suddenly become worse, and it is feared that he is dying. King Otto was born April 27, 1848, and succeeded to the throne June 13, 1886. Early in his reign he began to display extraordinary eccentricities, which in time developed into hallucinations and finally into violent madness. On June 10, 1888 the government passed into the hands of the present regent, Prince Ludwig.

CABLE NOTES.

The triennial elections to the Folketing, or lower house of the Danish Parliament, have resulted in a majority for the Radical Left.

Care of the complexion.

It is a well known fact that a torpid liver produces a sallow and a dull complexion. You need not expect a clear, beautiful complexion, if the blood is rendered impure by a sluggish action of the liver, which clearly shows its function of purifying and filtering all impurities from the blood. Ladies, Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills is an invaluable remedy for their action on the liver and blood, they promote true beauty by rendering the complexion clear and bright.
